Lit-tle girl, don't cry, I must say "Good - bye;" Don't you hear the bug - le call? And the When I leave, you dear, Give me words of cheer; To re-call in time of pain; They will fife and drum bid the fel-lows come, Where the flag waves o - ver all, Tho' I com-fort me, And will seem to be, Like the sun shine af - ter rain, And 'mid love you so, It - is time to go, And a sold-ier in me you'll find, When on shot and shell, I'll re-mem-ber well, You've the heart of a sold-ier too; And that land or sea, They need boys like me, You would not have me stay be - hind; So through this war, I am fight-ing for, My coun-try and my home and you; So
