JUL -5 1919
©CLE453059

If You're An American Be An American Through and Through.

Words by C. F. Potter.

Music by C. F. POTTER.

MARCIA.

Voice

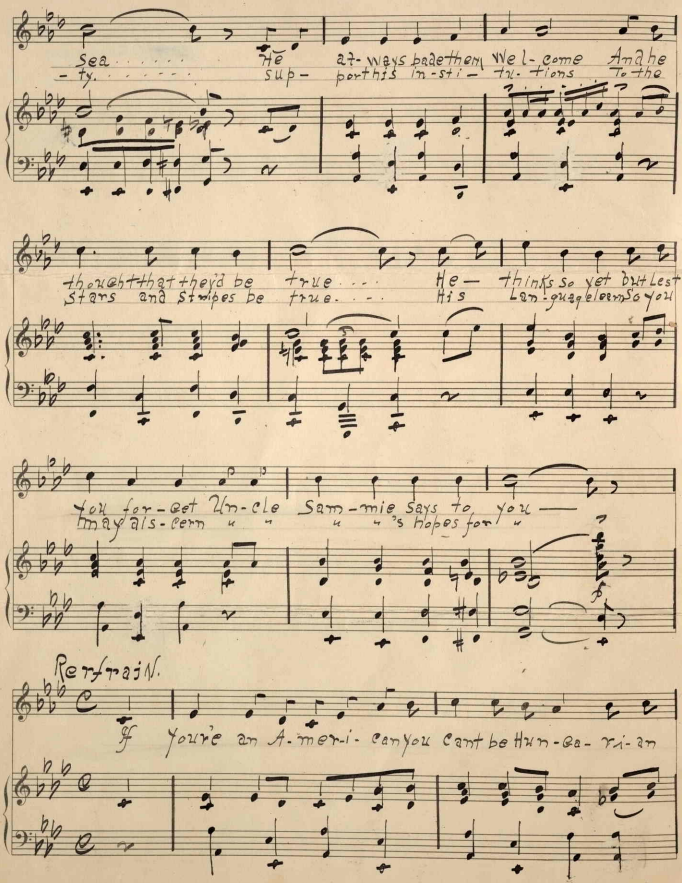
In the Land of Un-cle Sam-mie There is To o-

Eve-ry Nat-ion-al-i-ty. From eve-ry bey the Law is Lib-er-ty. Do your

Coun-try on the Con-ti-nents and the Is-Lands of the du-ty as a Cit-i-zen, and dis-play your Loy-al-

M1646

Copyrighted 1919 by C. F. Potter, Woodhaven, L. I. N. Y.
(No 383 Woodland Ave.)



sea ty. He sup- al-ways bade them porthis in-sti- Wel-come tu-tions And he To the though that they'd be true He— thinks so yet but lest Stars and Stripes be true His Lan-guage learns so you you for-get Un-cle Sam-mie says to you—may als-cern " " " 's hopes for "
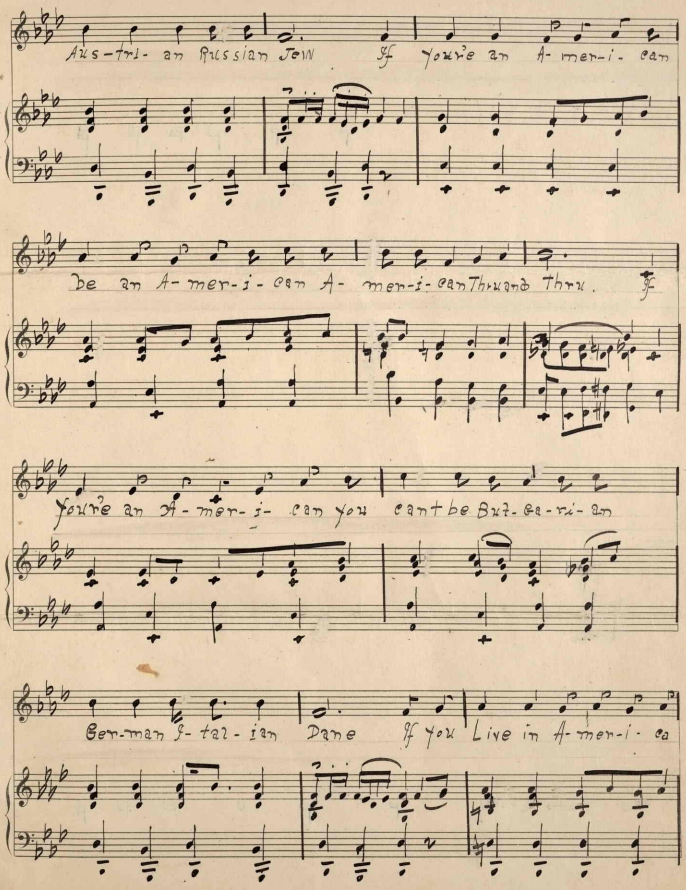
Refrain.
If You're an A-meri-can you cant be hun-ga-ri-an



Aus-tri- an Russian Jew If youre an A- mer-i- can be an A- mer-i- can A- mer-i- canThruand Thru. If youre an A- mer-i- can you cant be Bul-ga-ri- an Ger-man I- tal- ian Dane If you Live in A- mer-i- ca

464569