When France came to the un-ion's aid and gave so free of gold, She When France our col-ors rec-og-nized, the red, the white, the blue, When When Kais-er Bill wakes up some day he'll find a crum-bling throne, Shut served us well in time of need, how well can scarce be told; Now La-fay-ette our cause es-poused in words that rang so true, Our out from all that's good and great, he'll find him-self a-lone, For the bleed-ing France calls back to us, come join the Al-lies cause, And brave fore-fath-ers lit-tle thought that we should have the chance, To un-ion boys will fight to win the fight France al-most won, When help us break the ty-rant's yoke and write up free-dom's laws, pay the debt of grat-i-tude we owed to sun-ny France.

 Kais-er Bill wakes up some-day he'll find his jour-ney run.

So the un - ion boys are com - ing, they march a mil - lion strong -
But the
For the

They'll help to fight the Al - lies fight, and sing the Al - lies song,

Yes, the un - ion boys are com - ing, they march a mil - lion strong,

The boys who love the stars and stripes, their com - ing won't be long.
