

DEDICATED TO FAMOUS PAT O'BRIEN

WHEN PAT O'BRIEN GOES OVER THE LINE (WITH HIS IRISH VOLUNTEERS)

WORDS BY JEAN McLANE
AND
DANIEL McGEEHAN
MUSIC BY
EUGENE PLATZMANN

5

PUBLISHED BY McGEEHAN BROS.
NANTICOKE PA.

c.c.g.

When Pat O'Brien Goes Over The Line

(With His Irish Volunteers)

Words by JEAN McLANE
&
DANIEL McGEEHAN

Melody by EUGENE PLATZMANN

Marcia

VAMP

There is a fight - ing I - rish - man, his name is Pat O' Brien,
I - rish men have been fight - ing ev - er since the war be - gan, Where -

And now he is fight - ing, right on the fir - ing line; He ev - er there is fight - ing, sure there is I - rish - men; O'

said "I'm in the war to stay, I'm out to get the Hun, For Brien said we must win the war, and win it we will, you bet, For now that the I - rish are in to it, there's go - ing to be some fun." — were out to get Kai - ser Bill and sure, we're go - ing to get him yet.

CHORUS (Not fast)

When Pat O'Brien goes o - ver the line with his I - rish Vol - un - teers They'll shout "Hoo-ray!" we'll sure win the day, for now the I - rish are here! — We'll get the Hun, the "Son - of - a - gun" of a Kai - ser, and win the war; When Pat O'Brien goes o - ver the line with his I - rish Vol - un - teers! — When teers!

Put On The Old Blue Uniform Your Daddy Wore

Words by JEAN McLANE and
D. J. McGEHAN

Music by HENRY MULLEN

Put on the old blue u - ni - form and a gun on your shoulder too,

CHORUS

Show them you're true blue, that you'll fight for your coun - try too. Be like your dad, a man, and help pro - tect your land, Put on the old blue u - ni - form your dad - dy wore.

FOR SALE BY DEALERS OR SENT BY PUBLISHERS ON RECEIPT OF 25c.