

GOODBYE

WE ARE OFF To FRANCE

Words and Music by

SYLVIA DUNLAVY RAMSEY

Price 50 ¢

Published by SYLVIA DUNLAVY RAMSEY
LOS ANGELES, CAL.

M1646
.R

Goodbye We Are Off To France

Words & Music by SYLVIA DUNLAVY RAMSEY

Brisk March time

ff p

Un - cle Sam is a wise old boy, Gets wis - er ev' - ry Red Cross, Blue Cross has Un - cle Sam, Y. M. C. A. in day, He's fix - ing for the big - gest fight, With - line, Thrift stamps and bonds for lib - er - ty, A -

out the least de - lay, He builds air - ships and oth - er mer - i - cans are fine. The doc - tors and the nurs - ships, In num - bers that can't be beat, Our es Are read - y for the fray The Un-cle Sam has nev-er known And nev-er will know de-feat.

wives and moth-ers and the sweet-hearts, Help-ing to win the day.

CHORUS

Good-bye, we're off for France to-day. Eager to do our bit Goodbye Great Lakes, Kear-ney and all. Its you who've made us fit. We fear—not their zep'lins or sub-marines Neith-er do we fear their guns, We're a bunch of Sam-mies with the goods And we'll put the Hun on the run.

442615