

My Baby

© 1919

Words and Music

By
Grace Pullman

3

454047

©CLE444637 R

My Baby

Poem by
Grace Pullman

MAR -3 1919

Oh! how many would give up their riches-
And all in this world they possess
Just for the love of a baby
Just for one little carress.

Chorus:

God saved out for me when He made the skies.
Two bits of blue for my Baby's eyes.
The soul of a lily-the heart of a rose
And a crimped petal for my Baby's nose.
A few pearly dew drops for Baby's tears
Two tiny sea shells for Baby's ears.
A ray of sunshine for my Baby's smile.
God did this for me to make life worth while.

Two little lips full of kisses
Two little eyes full of love.
A dear little heart overflowing
With a message from Heaven above.