APR -8 1918

©CLA519636

"The Liberty Bond of the U.S.A."

Song By John A. Jack Randall
59 W. Ohio St.
Chicago Ill.

APR -8 1918

The Liberty Bond of the U.S.A. All by Jack Pandall 10-17-no one lib-er-ty main-tain or cringe with cra-ven fear!

Must we bow down to fear-dom will be swept a-way lest each shall do his part.
What man nor man is ty save yoke, ac-cept that vile com-mand
Re-force the gift of Val-ley-forge, de he can stand neg-lect-ing Chance to give His last pos-ses-sion in ship-pint, that sent this God cursed land!
Or shall we fight give all our might to em-my call re-
Our Star Flag may flee—
Our no-bleed, bret'ren in the flat to bleed, and some must rit - - - - - - -
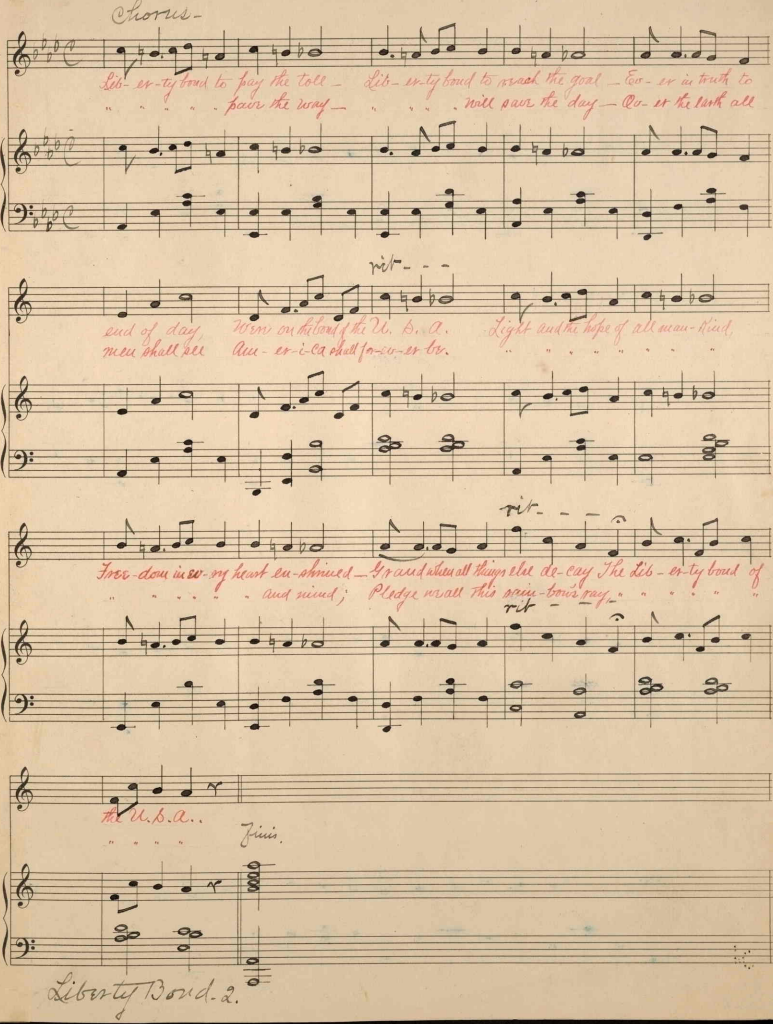
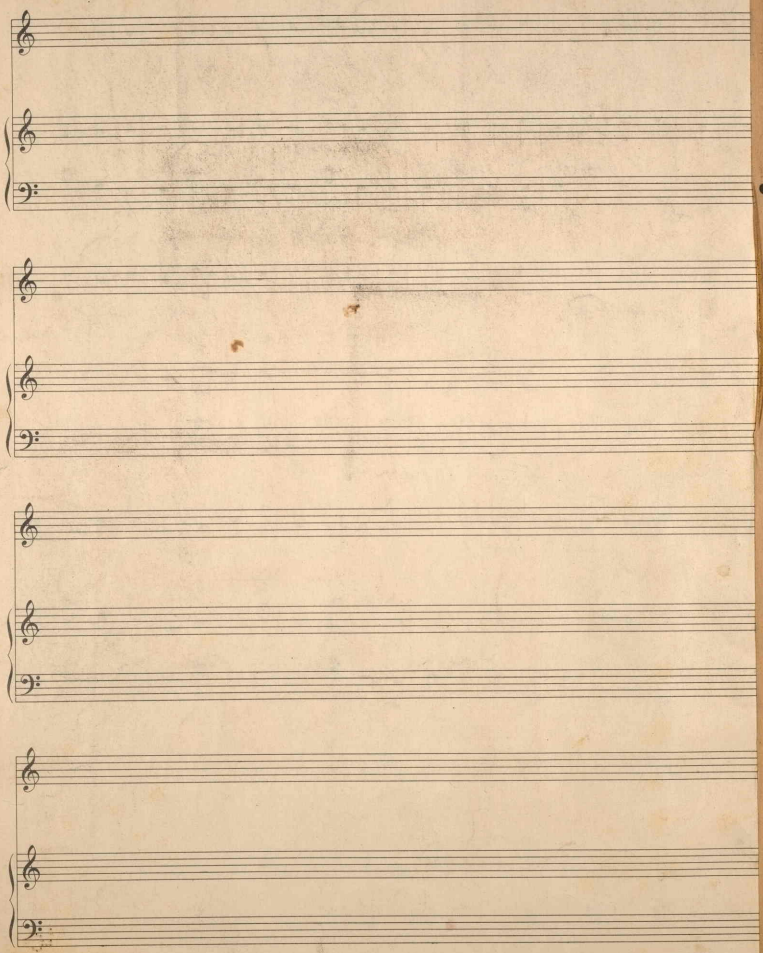
spond,
Wheth-er it be up-on the field or on our Na-tions Ford!
die—
Can we call him a-man-i- can who now stands id-ly by?





Chorus-
Lib- er-ty bond to pay the toll — Lib- er-ty bond to reach the goal — For- ev- er in truth to " " " " fair the way — " " " will save the day — Ev- er the earth all rit- - -
end of day Worn on board of the U. S. A. Light and the hope of all man-kind, men shall see Am- er- i- ca shall for- ev- er be.
rit- - -
Free- dom in ev- ry heart en- shrined — Grand when all things else de- cay The Lib- er-ty bond of
" " " " and mind; Pledge we all this sacr- ed way- " " " "
rit - -
the U. S. A..
" " " "
Finis.