Going to France

Words & Music by MARY DODSON RAMSEUR

Now o'er the roll - ing wave,

Andante

To a foreign shore, We go to meet our coun - try's foe On bat - tle fields of gore. But still we'll car - ry in our hearts A - mid the crash and roar Tender thoughts of those at home A -

Con express

REFRAIN

mer - i - cal ev - er - more. So now good - bye, 'Tis time to part Keep

Con espress

back the tears and strengthen well thy heart We go to fight For God and right, Fo peace and freedom's blessed light.

2. We go with mingled feel-ings now, We 3. We hope and pray a bright-er day Will

mf

Andante Adagio

know not what our fate Our hearts are beat-ing high with hope And not with murd'rous hate. We dawn, and peace will come: That right and jus-tice shall pre-vail, And then were com-ing home A - passionate passionate wave a-loft our Coun-try's flag And for 'its just de-mands We fight, and if it need be, mer-i-ca that bless-ed land! Where all can hap-py be, That glo-ri-ous land of Lib-er-
