

The BLUE and the GOLD

DATE OF PUBLICATION

FEB 15 1919

Written in memory of the boys who made the great sacrifice; particularly for one who fell on the field of honor, after killing five of the enemy and capturing two. His be-reaved mother pinned these lines on his service flag, hence their publication in this form.

Andante Con Espressione

Star of Blue ___ of shade so true, ___ Sign of Love ___ I bore to you. ___ Star of Gold ___ where once was Blue, ___ Sign of Life ___ I gave for you. ___ Star of Blue ___ of shade so true, ___ Sign of Love ___ I bore to you. ___ Star of Gold ___ where once was Blue, ___ Sign of Life ___ I gave for you! ___

The musical score is written in a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The key signature has two flats (B-flat and E-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The tempo is marked 'Andante Con Espressione'. The lyrics are placed below the treble staff, with horizontal lines indicating the placement of the words. The melody is primarily in the treble staff, while the bass staff provides a simple harmonic accompaniment.
