

Uncle Sam Picks Popular Songs for Official "Songs for Soldiers" to Be Sung in Camps

Who would expect our boys to be familiar with the national songs of our allies, particularly Great Britain, "The Streets of Free Haven," but it would be interesting to know how many of the following national songs that the new book includes are known to them.

The Star Spangled Banner.
America.
Marche des Morts de la République.
The Red, White and Blue.
Mairie City of Freedom.
Dixie.
La Marseillaise.
The British.
Hymn of Free Haven.

Among the popular songs of the day are:

There's a Love, Love Trade.
Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit-Bag.

Into the House Five Thousand
When the Great Red Sun Is Shining
Over There.

I Had the Game for a Lamp, Long Time,
And Me a Cup.

Using Both H-O-M-E.

Till I Met the Girl I Love Behind
I Don't Care Where They Send Me of the service.

Indian.

Rock in Mandolin.

Leopard Mountain.

Temple and Tule and Rose.

Yule, Hula and Aida O.

L'Amour.

The Struggle of Your Soul.

They Made It Twice as Nice as Un-lived and Called It Paradise.

Old Favorites

Can't you visualize a scene "over there"? Evering them over. Or in the dusk—a "Mack" reference by singing
"The Old Cuban Band." Near by a company of lucky Keweenawians are singing "Old Kentucky Home," while a black Sam Houston sings the "Indian Song." And an artillery regiment is singing "The Two Hundred Fifty" songs of the Second New York Field Artillery,

"The Red, White and Blue" and "The Mountain Dance."

A happy selection of the following old favorites does the book contain:

"Old Fiddlers Home."

"Old Black Joe."

"Old Kentucky Home."

"The Valley of the Volcano."

"Indian Song."

"The Old Sweet Song."

"The Old Cuban Band."

"A Perfect Day."

"The Old Sweet Song."

"The Old Cuban Band."

"The Old Sweet Song."

Religious Songs

"Bible" songs would not perfectly fit into any army or navy manual after the distribution of the new song books. For his old national favorite,
"The Valley of the Volcano," he has found among the list of religious songs that follows:

"Shower, My God, to Them,
Alike With Me.

The Son of God Came Forth to War,
Come, Thou Almighty King.

New the Day is Over,
Holy, Holy, Holy.

A Mighty Fortress,
How Firm a Foundation.

Brighten the Corner,
Jehovah of Arm.

America the Beautiful, Hail, Doves with Light. (Russian style).

O God, Our Help in Ages Past.

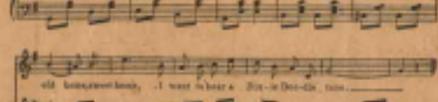

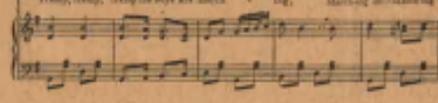

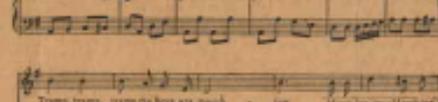

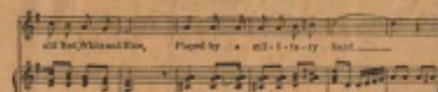

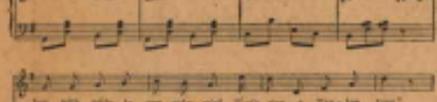

Lyric by Walter S. Decker.

I WANT TO HEAR A DIXIE DOODLE TUNE

Music by Chas. L. Lewis.

Copyright, 1916,
by Walter S. Decker.

WHO'S WHO AMONG ARMY OFFICERS AND WHY— TOLD BY THE SUNDAY POST IN SPECIAL SERIES

No. 1—The Non-Commissioned Officers

Why is a corporal?

What is a sergeant?

Is a non-com. a non-combatant?

No; a non-com. is a non-commissioned officer in the army. The lowest ranking commissioned officer in the army is a second lieutenant. The corporals and sergeants are non-coms.

What Women Should Knit for Soldiers Told in Rules Given Out by Red Cross

Women all over the country are knitting.

For the soldiers and sailors of the United States ten of thousands of knitting needles are clicking, and thousands of mothers, sisters and sweethearts are making things to make their soldier boys cozy in the trenches and at sea.

But the authorities have found that there is knitting too fast.

Uncle Sam Picks Popular Songs for Official "Songs for Soldiers" to Be Sung in Camps

We are proud to present our lists to be sung in the national songs of our army, particularly distinguished by "The Stars and Stripes," but it would be interesting to know how many of the following national songs that the new book includes are known to them: The Star Spangled Banner.

Annals
Battle Hymn of the Republic.
The Red, White and Blue.
Battle Cry of Freedom.

Irish
La Marseillaise.
Rocks of Brinnage.
The Star Spangled Banner.

Among the popular songs of the day are:

There's a Love, Love Trail.
Pack Up Your Troubles in Your Old Kit-Bag.
Keep the Home Fires Burning.
When the Great Red Dawn is Breaking Over There.

1. They Are Marching to a Long, Long Trail.
2. I'm a Soldier.
3. I'm a Soldier.

4. I'm a Soldier.
5. I'm a Soldier.
6. I'm a Soldier.

7. I'm a Soldier.
8. I'm a Soldier.
9. I'm a Soldier.

10. I'm a Soldier.
11. I'm a Soldier.
12. I'm a Soldier.

13. I'm a Soldier.
14. I'm a Soldier.
15. I'm a Soldier.

16. I'm a Soldier.
17. I'm a Soldier.
18. I'm a Soldier.

19. I'm a Soldier.
20. I'm a Soldier.
21. I'm a Soldier.

22. I'm a Soldier.
23. I'm a Soldier.
24. I'm a Soldier.

25. I'm a Soldier.
26. I'm a Soldier.
27. I'm a Soldier.

28. I'm a Soldier.
29. I'm a Soldier.
30. I'm a Soldier.

31. I'm a Soldier.
32. I'm a Soldier.
33. I'm a Soldier.

34. I'm a Soldier.
35. I'm a Soldier.
36. I'm a Soldier.

37. I'm a Soldier.
38. I'm a Soldier.
39. I'm a Soldier.

40. I'm a Soldier.
41. I'm a Soldier.
42. I'm a Soldier.

company of lucky youngsters are drawing "Old Kentucky Home," while a bunch from New Orleans shares the "Swanee Song." And an artillery regiment is singing "The Stars and Stripes" as one of the Second New York Field Artillery, "Hail, Hail, Hail," and "The Mezzetta Railway."

A happy selection of the following set favorite from the book includes:

"Old Folks at Home."
"Old Kentucky Home."
"Swanee Song."
"The Stars and Stripes."
"The Old Dutch Settlement."
"The Old Folks at Home."
"The Stars and Stripes."
"The Old Dutch Settlement."
"The Stars and Stripes."
"The Old Dutch Settlement."

Religious Songs

"Happy Sunday would not perfectly fit home at any army or navy headquarters after the distribution of the new song books. For his old personal favorites, "The Stars and Stripes" is to be heard among the list of religious songs that follow:

"Swanee Song."
"The Stars and Stripes."
"The Old Dutch Settlement."
"The Stars and Stripes."
"The Old Dutch Settlement."

Copyright, 1916,
by Walter S. Decker.

Lyric by Walter S. Decker.

I WANT TO HEAR A DIXIE DOODLE TUNE

Music by Chas. L. Lewis.

Tempo 41 MARCH

CHORUS

WHO'S WHO AMONG ARMY OFFICERS AND WHY— TOLD BY THE SUNDAY POST IN SPECIAL SERIES

No. 1—The Non-Commissioned Officers

What is a corporal?
What is a sergeant?
What is a non-com.
What is a non-com.

What Women Should Knit for Soldiers Told in Rules Given Out by Red Cross

Women all over the country are knitting. For the soldiers and sailors of the United States tens of thousands of knitting needles are clicking and thousands of needles, wires and sweaters are making things to make their soldier boys cozy in the trenches and at sea. But the authorities have found that there is knitting and knitting.

