

AUG 17 1918

Rear den, H. E.

Hankie Lamb

YANKEE LAND

By HARRY E. REARDON

Moderato

PIANO

The piano introduction is in 2/4 time, marked Moderato. It features a steady accompaniment in the left hand with chords and single notes, and a more active melody in the right hand with eighth and sixteenth notes.

Dad-dy dear dont you hear sol-diers march-ing, Down the hill, see them drill all in line,
 "Dad-dy dear lis-ten here I've been dream-ing," Said the lad to his dad - dy one morn.

The first system of the song includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has two lines of lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues from the introduction.

And their u - ni - forms that look so stun - ning on par - ade; Ain't they great see the
 There I see our sol-dier boys re - turn - ing, vic-try won; War was done, wav-ing

The second system of the song includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has two lines of lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues.

tears, hear the cheers, tell me dad - dy What those young men like broth-er ev - er did, Then the flags, big brass bands, all were play - ing Gee the wel - come they got was sim-ply grand, Then your

The third system of the song includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has two lines of lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues.

fa-ther fill'd with joy in his arms then took the boy Then ten-der - ly to him said words came back to me as our boys all march'd a - way, Twas then that I heard you say

The fourth system of the song includes a vocal line and piano accompaniment. The vocal line has two lines of lyrics. The piano accompaniment continues.

CHORUS

SPOKEN

When the sol - diers march a - way And the crowd is shout - ing out (Hur - rah) They're the he - roes of Un - cle Sam, Yan - kee Land ain't they grand Then you see the sail - or boys in blue March - ing to the tune of 'Yan-kee Doo-dle we love you' They all look fine and they're will - ing to die Oh - say can you see It's your Yan - kee Land.

