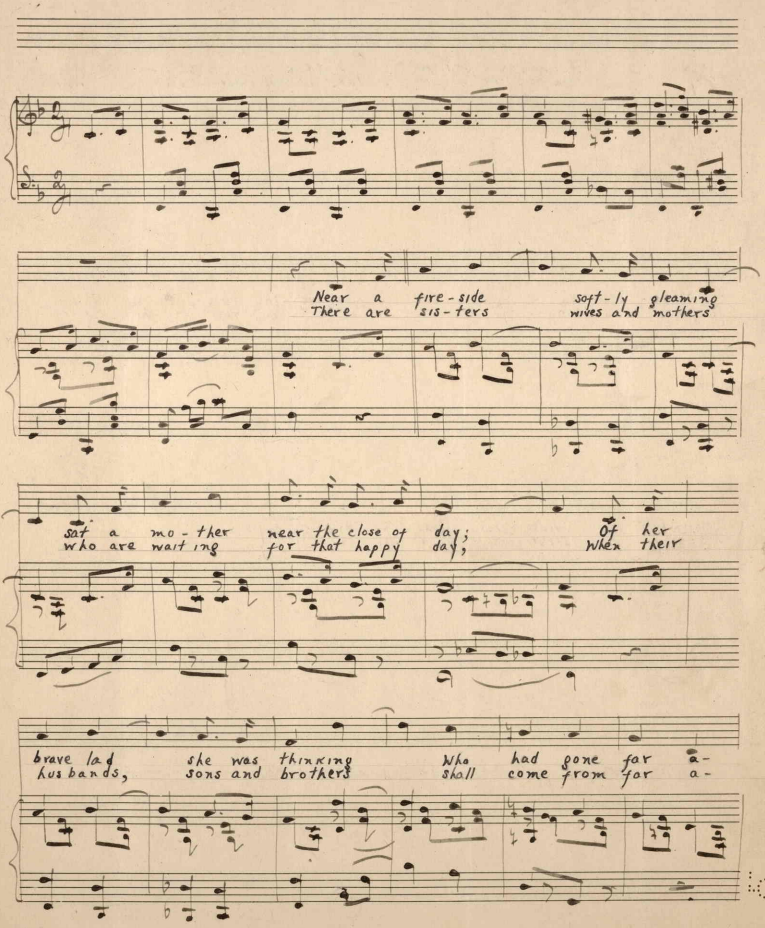
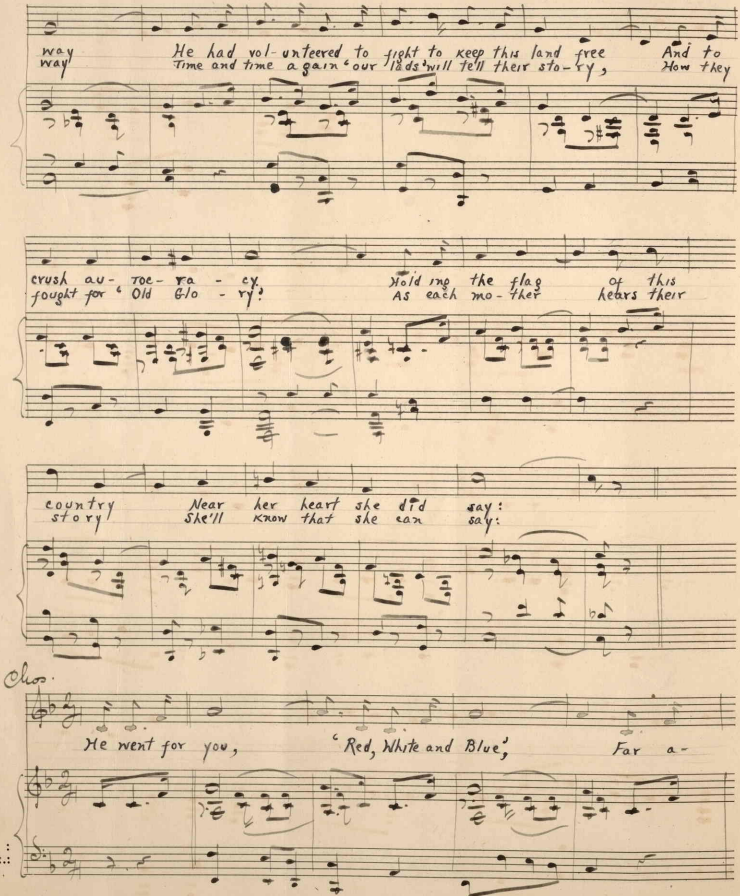
©CLE440520
DEC 30 1918

HE WENT FOR YOU,
(Red, White and Blue.)

Words and Music
by
Michael I. Reckler



11646
R



way He had vol-unteered to fight to keep this land free And to way Time and time a gain our lads will tell their sto-ry, How they crush au-toc-ra-cy Hold ing the flag of this fought for Old Glo-ry? As each mo-ther hears their country Near her heart she did say:
story She'll know that she can say:
Chor.
He went for you, 'Red, White and Blue', Far across the wide and mad-ly roaring sea; On the hard ground he did lie And you know how he did try To pro-tect you and de-fend our li-ber-ty And he was true, 'Red, White and Blue',

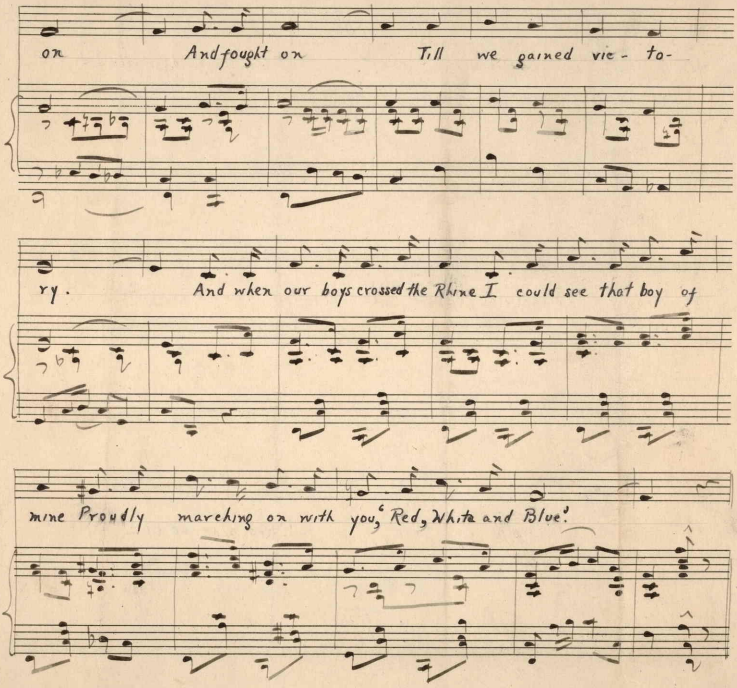
He was loy-al to you as he was to me. He marched



Words and Music
by
Michael I. Rechtev
66 St. Mark's Place
New York City, New York.

From Michael I. Rechler
66 ST. Marks Place
New York, New York.