SEP 25 1918
©CLE431279

THERE'S A SWEETHEART WAITING IN DIXIE FOR ME

Words and Music
by
J. C. REED

J. C. REED -PUBLISHER-
-BUTTE, MONTANA.-

H1646
.R

There's a Sweetheart Waiting in Dixie for Me

J. C. REED

Copyright MCMXVIII by J. C. Reed trees That is why I long for Dix - ie Land, And that sea She's the sweet - est rose in Dix - ie Land, Shone her fz dim. - - mf

girl a - cross the sea, Where I took her gent - ly eyes like morn - ing dew, As she whis - pered soft - ly cresc.
fz
p in my arms, And she gave her heart to me. in my ear "I'll be wait - ing here for you."
pp mf
dim.
pp
REFRAIN
There's a sweet heart wait - ing in Dix - ie for me When I get back from the Brillante
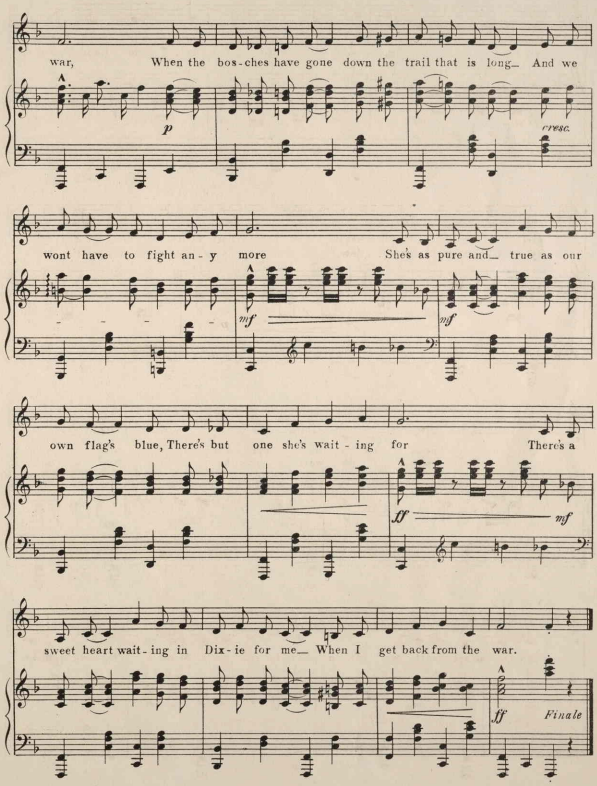
cantabile
mf



war, When the bos-ches have gone down the trail that is long_ And we p rrvac.
wont have to fight an-y more She's as pure and_ true as our
mf
mf own flag's blue, There's but one she's wait-ing for There's a ff
mf
sweet heart wait-ing in Dix-ie for me_ When I get back from the war.
ff Finale