JAN 17 1918 ©CLE125796

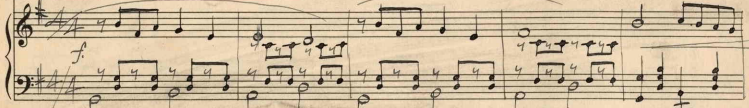
"Somewhere in France!" with the Dammies.

or Keep a Place in Your Heart for Me.

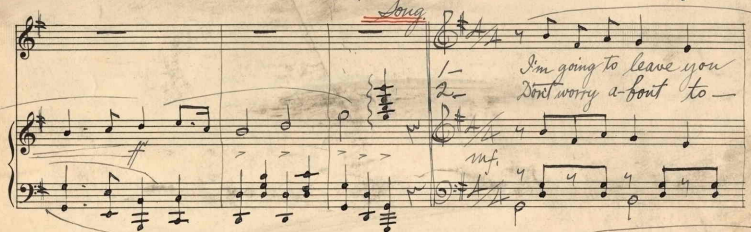
Words by
W. H. Woodworth

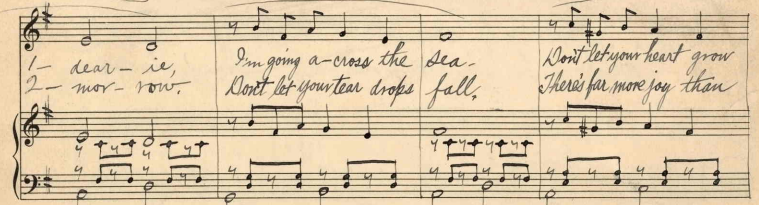
Music by
Fred Albert Reynolds

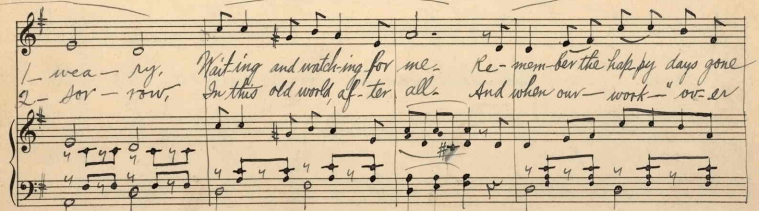
Introduction. March Tempo.



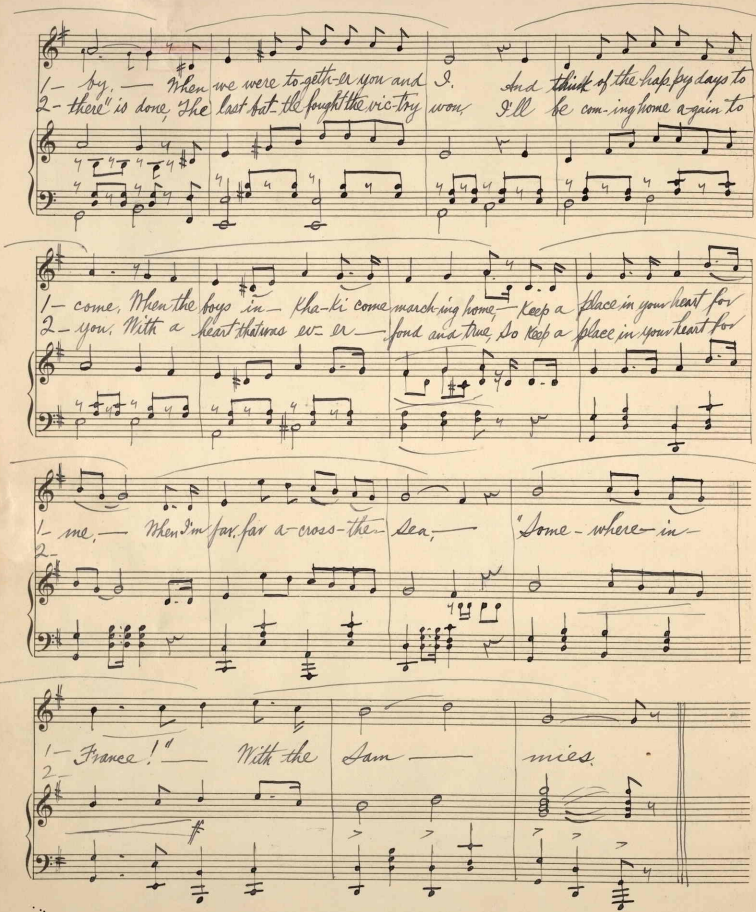
Song.







M16 46
R
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10—12 lines.



1- by, — When we were to-geth-er you and I. And think of the hap-py days to
2- there" is done, The last bat-tle fought the vic-to-ry won, I'll be com-ing home a-gain to 1- come, When the boys in — kha-ki come march-ing home, — Keep a place in your heart for
2- you, With a heart that was ev- er — fond and true, So keep a place in your heart for
1- me, — When I'm far, far a-cross the sea, — Some-where in 2-
1- France!" — With the Sam — mies.
2

Chorus

Brightly

Keep a place — in your heart for me, When I am far a — cross the sea.

"Somewhere in France" with the Sam — mies, Fighting for Lib-er — ty! Fighting the Bo-ches and the Kai — ser, When we're through they will be wis-er. We'll teach them to know that the Star — Span-gled ban-ner And

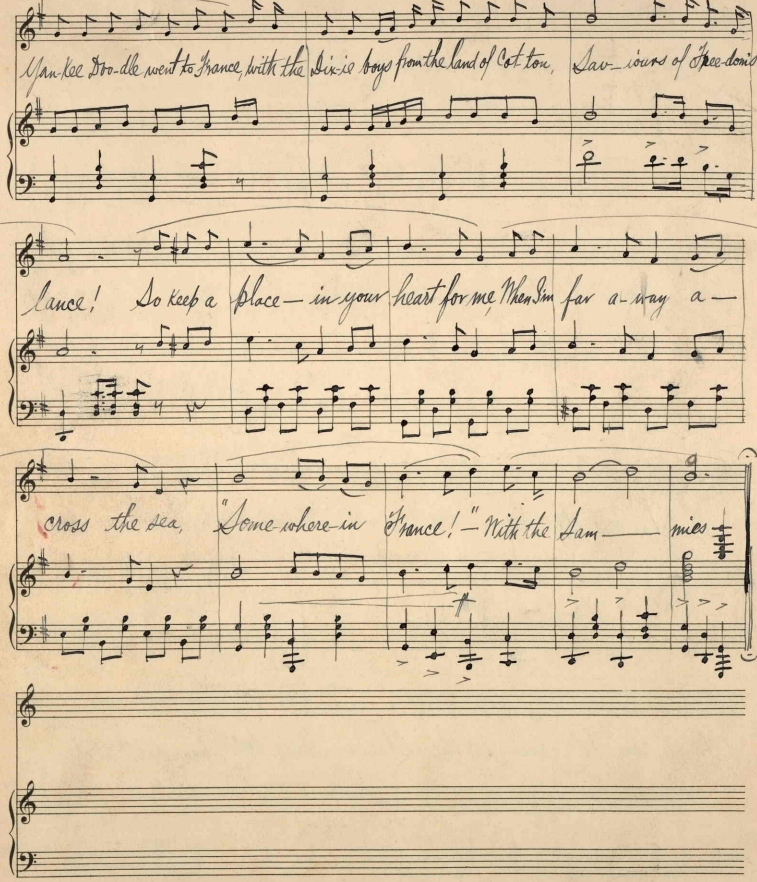
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10 – 12 lines.



Yan-kee Doo-dle went to France, with the Dix-ie boys from the land of Cot-ton, Sav-iours of Lib-er-ties lance! So keep a place — in your heart for me, When I'm far a-way a — cross the sea, "Some-where in France!" — With the Sam — mies