

© CIE 472578

FEB 21 1920

THE DIAMOND STAR

WORDS BY

NICHOLAS H. HUNN

MUSIC BY

A. LEOPOLD RICHARD

11640 PUBLISHED BY

Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

The Diamond Star

Words by NICHOLAS H. HUNN

Music by A. LEOPOLD RICHARD

Valse grazioso

The musical score is written in 3/4 time with a key signature of one sharp (F#). It consists of a piano accompaniment and a vocal line. The piano part begins with a mf dynamic and features a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The vocal line starts with a mp dynamic and includes lyrics. The score is divided into five systems, each with a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "As I look up in the sky so high, It seems I see a dia-mond in the sky It spar-kles and glistens ev - 'ry night, Ex - cept when clouds keep it out of sight In win - ter time 'tis best of all, For the star's bright light does fall On the snow be - low, and glist - ens so." The piano part includes a l.h. marking in the fourth system.

mf

mp

l.h.

As I look up in the sky so high, It seems I see a dia-mond in the sky It spar-kles and glistens ev - 'ry night, Ex - cept when clouds keep it out of sight In win - ter time 'tis best of all, For the star's bright light does fall On the snow be - low, and glist - ens so.

CHORUS.

Oh, what a beau-ti-ful glow, The re-flec-tion the star makes in the snow. It seems to dim your eyes so, This glist-'ning of the snow. When I rise in the ear-ly hours of morn- I look for the dia-mond in the sky, For that well known dia-mond is sure to be shown From the clear blue sky on high.

mf

482724