

DEC 10 1919
© CLE455108

A MAN FROM OLD MISSOURI

WORDS BY
HATTIE E. JOHNSON
MUSIC BY HECTOR RICHARD

PUBLISHED BY Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

A Man from Old Missouri

Word by HATTIE E. JOHNSON
Moderato con spirito

Music by HECTOR RICHARD

mf

3

There's a man from old Miss-ou-ri, who we sent a-cross the seas, And he's There's a man from old Miss-ou-ri, and he's sure the Kai-ser shown, For his p fought just like the "Fam-ous Stub-born Mule," He's arm-y formed the key-stone to the arch. The 3

out to hunt for ty-rants, he stayed right on the job, Till he Boch-es ran for cov-er, they yelled out: "Kam-er-ad!" When he broke the Kai-ser's dev-il-ish rule.

got his dar- ing Yan-kee's on the march

CHORUS. Moderato con spirito

Chorus. Oh, you Persh-ing, brave and true, we have pinned our faith to you, And we Chorus. Oh, you Ger-mans blind and dumb, now you've seen our Persh-ing come; His sent you with our boys a - cross the sea He's boys have sent you back a - cross the Rhine, They kept o - ver there in Eu - rope, where praise God we know he'll stay Till the com - ing, com - ing, com - ing, and he fought his way through Hell When he world from ty - rants is set free Oh, you free got his dar - ing Yan - kee boys in line. Oh, you boys in line.

3

There's a man from old Missouri who the Kaiser's game did call,
 With his Yankee boys so daring, brave and true,
 For he blocked the road to Paris like a solid granite wall;
 Yes, he blocked it till the devil can't get through.

4

There's a man from old Missouri who will visit Wilhelm's home
 In the famous blood bought Prussian lands,
 He'll furl the folds of glory from Berlin's palace dome,
 And he'll bind the crazy Kaiser's bloody hands.

476408