

JAN 27 1924
© CIE 167503

Homeward Bound

WORDS BY LILLIAN WILEY

MUSIC BY A. LEOPOLD RICHARD

M 646
PUBLISHED BY Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

Homeward Bound

Words by LILLIAN WILEY

Music by A. LEOPOLD RICHARD

Allegretto Moderato

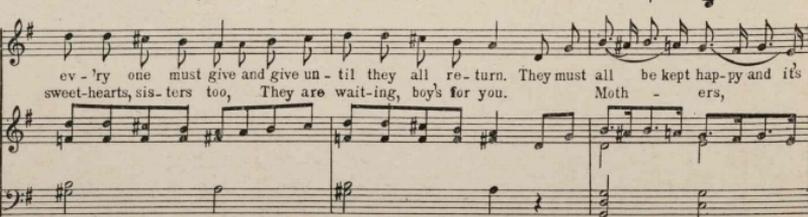

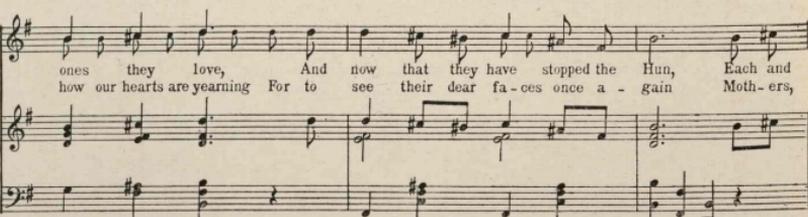

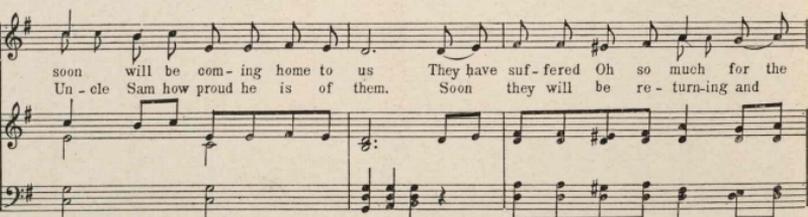

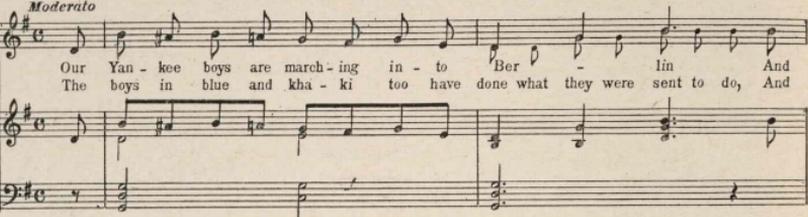

Moderato

Our Yan - kee boys are march - ing in - to Ber - lin And The boys in blue and kha - ki too have done what they were sent to do, And soon will be oom - ing home to us They have suf - fered Oh so much for the Un - cle Sam how proud he is of them. Soon they will be re - turn - ing and ones they love, And now that they have stopped the Hun, Each and how our hearts are yearning For to see their dear fa - ces once a - gain Moth - ers, ev - 'ry one must give and give un - til they all re - turn. They must all be kept hap - py and it's sweet - hearts, sis - ters too, They are wait - ing, boys for you. Moth - ers, up to us to see That they have the good things we have o - ver here.

 sweet-hearts, sis - ters too, They are wait - ing, boys, for re - ceive you.

CHORUS, March Moderato

Home-ward bound, home-ward bound To their good old home town. Are we read-y to re - ceive them? Well I guess we are. Ev - 'ry band that we can find We will have them right in line, And the girls Oh! how hap - py they will be (will be) For we all know ver-y well That the Kai - ser he'll be well Home-ward bound, home-ward bound To their good old home town.

mf

