

JUN -4 1920 © C1E180981

SOMEWHERE IN FRANCE

WORDS BY
JOSEPHINE CARTER
MUSIC BY
HECTOR RICHARD

4164 PUBLISHED BY F. Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

Somewhere in France

Words by
JOSEPHINE CARTER

Music by
HECTOR RICHARD

Valse lento espressivo

A mes-sage the stor - y quick - ly
The torch from Flan - der's Fields he
And now at last their du - ty
His spir - it may be with them told, His moth - er's blue star had turned to gold, And One a - caught Up - 'held and died but not for naught His com - rades done The vic - try they've so nob - ly won. His com - rades too, To each we'll give the hon - or due, Un - to the bove who died the same A - mong the im - mor - tals writes His brave - ly car - ried on, And ver - y soon the vic - try we will wel - come home From far a cross the seas cold dead and those who live For free - dom saved due hom - age

name, He too lov'd France
 won For home and France
 foam From far off France
 give U S and France

CHORUS

Some-where in France he lies at rest With our star-ry banner up on his

p-mf

breast. He gave all on earth He had to give, He died that freedom for ev-er might live Some-where in France, France.

1 2

