

JUN 27 1920

© CIE 467509

THEY WILL REMEMBER THE ELEVENTH OF NOVEMBER

WORDS BY JOHN PLATENIK

MUSIC BY HECTOR RICHARD

1918/6
PUBLISHED BY Legters Music Co.
CHICAGO

They Will Remember the Eleventh of November

Words by JOHN PLATENIK

Musio by HECTOR RICHARD

Marcia

f

One beau - ti - ful day down old Broad - way Brown
 They greet - ed their moth - ers and sweet - hearts With
 They had the Old Glo - ry spir - it in them, They From French bat - tle - fields to Bel - gium's coast, They p kha - ki lads, marched by, Their tears they said good - bye, Then fought with rage and fur - y, They killed the Ger - man boast, They hel - mets and bay - on - ets shin - ing bright, It was marched all a - way to do their own part Un - der proved to the Huns and to old Wil - helm That they drove them out of Bel - gium and of France, Showed the cer - tain - ly a won - der - ful sight.

 Eu - rope's dark and war cloud - ed sky.
 fought for Right and Jus - tice al - way.
 Kai - ser that he had now no chance.

CHORUS. Marcia

The Ger - mans will al - ways re - mem - ber The e - lev - enth of No -

p-f vem - ber, For the boys who had marched down old Broad - way Made the Kai - ser's pow'r wane a - way. way.

489384