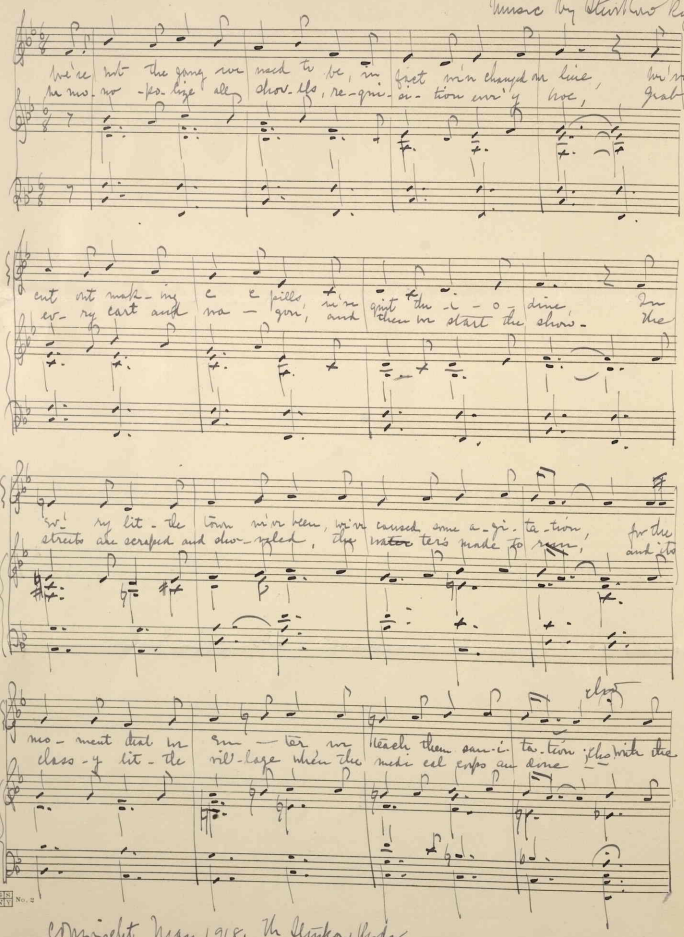
"With the Medical Corps in France"

Music by Stanislaus Ryder



We're not the gang we used to be, in fact we've changed our line, We're no more pos-ing ath-lete, re-gen-er-a-tion ev'ry hour, Grab cut out mak-ing ca-pi-tals, we've quit the i-o-dine, Ever-y cart and wa-gon, and then we start the show. The ev-'ry lit-tle town we've been, we've caused some a-gi-ta-tion, for the streets are scraped and slo-ppish, dig wate-ters made to run, and it's a slow mo-ment that we en-ter ev'ry ti-ny-ny-ny med-i-cal corps in France, with the med-i-cal Corps in France, you bet it pays to show the ways of the med-i-cal corps in France — you may think it on-ly pranks, but we al-ways earn their thanks, for you bet it pays, to know the ways of the med-i-cal corps in France.
