

March On, Boys, March On!

Music by FRANK SAMSON
Words by D. R. ENNESS

IN MARCH TIME

1. The
2. The
3. The

p poco a poco cresc. f mf

drum is beat-ing, boys, march on! march on! The flag is fly-ing and her stripes are stream-ing! The drum is beat-ing, boys, march on! march on! A na-tion has ar-ris-en, heart-a-bleed-ing, And drum is beat-ing, boys, march on! march on! Hark ye! The thun-der of the can-non roar-ing! Up glor-ious light of lib-er-ty is gleam-ing From ev'-ry star in-to the calls on you, oh boys, to help in lead-ing Her Com-rade-Broth-er in great to the skies its ir-on psalm is soar-ing! Down, tyr-ant, down from ov-er-bat-tle's night! God stands, Him-self, Com-man-der in the fight; To free the world from free-doms fight! No self-ish aim ob-scures your ban-ner white! Un-furled it flies for tow-ring height! The peo-ple rise, their flag puts thee to flight! The flag of free-dom:

tyr-an-ny! To free the world from tyr-an-ny! from tyr-an-ny, from tyr-an-ny and might vic-tor-y! Un-furled it flies for vic-tor-y! For vic-tor-y! For vic-tor-y for right! red, white, blue! The flag of free-dom: red, white, blue! The flag of free-dom: red and blue and white!

Copyright 1918 by J. W. Bothwell
The De Vinne Press
395 Lafayette Str., New York City

M1626

.S

