

MAY 20 1918

I'M JUST A SAMMY, A Blue-Blooded Yank

Words and Melody by Mrs. NORA TAMLIN RICKETTS

Piano Accompaniment by Mrs. MABEL HOFER

SEDALIA, MO.:

Published by A. W. PERRY'S SONS, Music Publishers.

M1646
.R

56

I'm Just A Sammy, A Blue-Blooded Yank.

Words and Melody by Mrs. NORA TAMLIN RICKETTS Piano accompaniment by Mrs. MABEL HOFER.

Moderato

There's a dear old home in a West-ern state, where the mount-tains and streams are grand; 'Tis the I've a fath-er and a moth-er at home, and a sweet-heart wait-ing for me, And aft-
Ser...

dear-est place in A-mer-i-ca, My own, my na-tive land. When I er the war is o-ver, I hope My own dear ones to see. Then I'll bade fare-well to the loved ones there, and sailed a-way for France. He bid fare-well to my com-rades here, and sail a-way from France. With

Copyright MCMXVIII by Mrs. NORA TAMLIN RICKETTS

a tempo

seemed to me that my heart would break, Still I was glad for such a chance, To my heart full of joy I will go, And I'll be glad for such a chance, grd. When do all the good in the best way I could, I was glad to go to France.

Ped. Ped. Ped.

 we've done all the good the best that we could, To help dear Eng-land and France.

Ped. Ped. Ped. Ped. Ped.

CHORUS faster

I'm just a Sam-my, a blue-blood-ed Yank, I'm aft-er the Kai-ser, the world's worst crank, So come on boys, we'll catch him on the run, We'll bring hfm to time a-long with the Hun.

Ped. Ped. Ped. Ped. Ped. Ped.

Ped. Ped. Ped. Ped. Ped. Ped.

