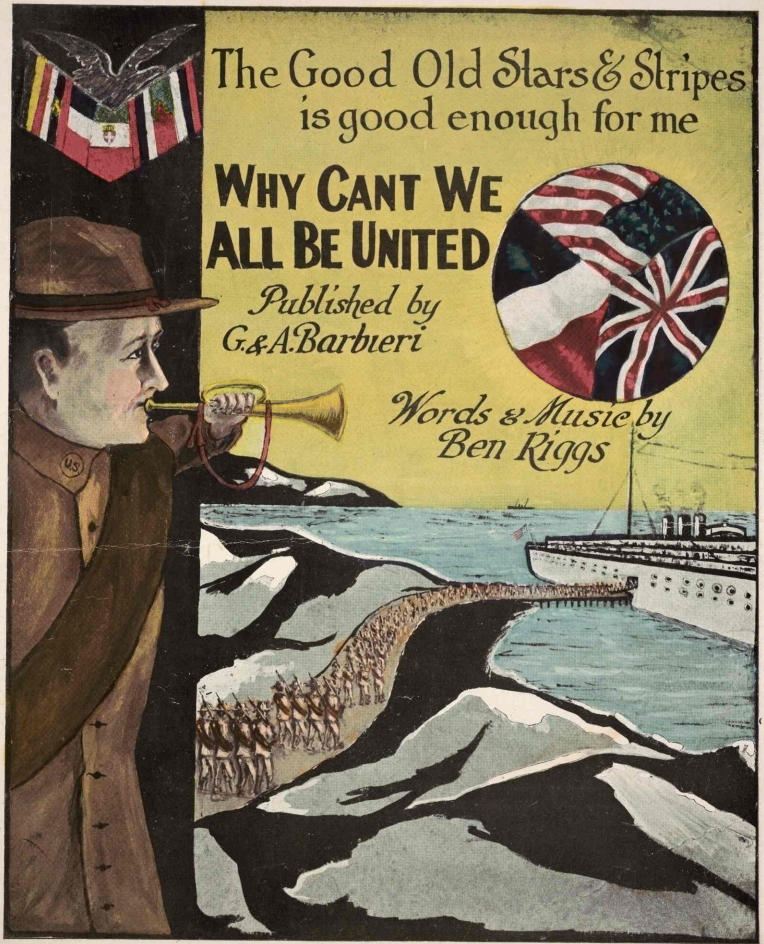
FEB 23 1918
©CLE 122525



M1646
.R

Why Can't We All Be United?

Words and Music by BEN RIGGS.

Copyright MCMXVIII by G. & A. Barbieri, 843 E. 142nd St., N. Y.

steel, When du - ty calls their reg - i - men - tal corps When they too, No na - tion on this earth could ask for more We had march with bayo - net fixed, Brings a thought of Sev - enty - six When they left the plough and states - men dead and gone The first was Wash - ing - ton And Lin - coln was an - fought for these old shores We have just as good to - day, In this oth - er fond and true Wood - row Wil - son of To - day There's three good old U. S. A. But there's a thing that al - ways puz - zles me.
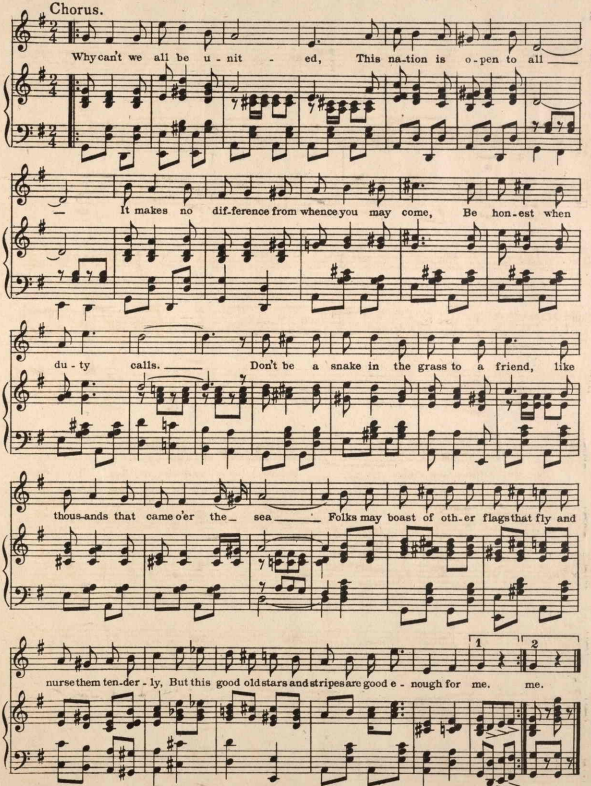
men you all must say Have shown the world what Yan - kee Doo - dles do.



Chorus.
Why can't we all be u - nit - ed, This na-tion is o-pen to all
It makes no dif-ference from whence you may come, Be hon-est when du - ty calls. Don't be a snake in the grass to a friend, like thous-ands that came o'er the sea Folks may boast of oth-er flags that fly and nurse them ten-der - ly, But this good old stars and stripes are good e - nough for me. me.
1
2