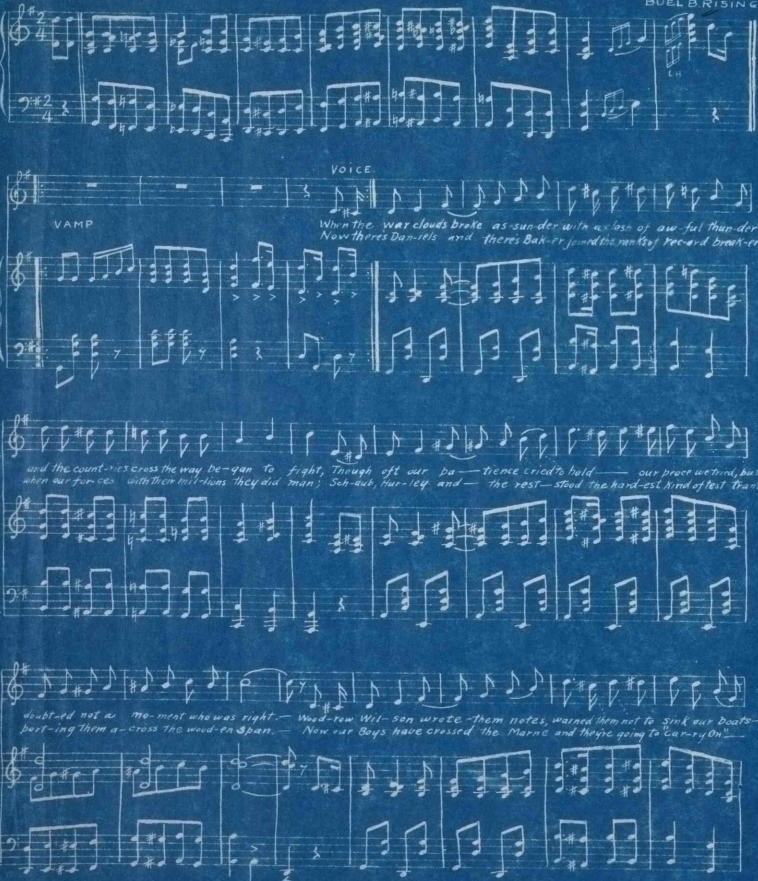
— THEY'LL BE THANKFUL TO —

"THE BOYS FROM YANKEELAND."

Words By—
HUDSON FUHRER

Music By—
BUEL B. RISINGER



— BUEL B. RISINGER, DIRECTOR SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA, MAJESTIC THEATRE, COLUMBUS, OHIO, U.S.A.

Bravado

But they laughed to scorn the message from his pen Till at last with haughty frown, They threw the gauntlet
Till they march in triumph into Berlin Town, Then The Kaiser will Sa-lute, As the Boys of Uncle

Bravado

Tempo

down, Our answer was ten-million fighting men
Sam, Place Old Glory where there used to be a crown.

REFRAIN

Hear them Tramp, Tramp, Tramp as they

tempo

come from every Camp, Marching to the tune of Freedom's Call. — see them come, come, come to the sound of fife and drum, Glad for Freedom's Cause to give their all. — They'll carry on, on,

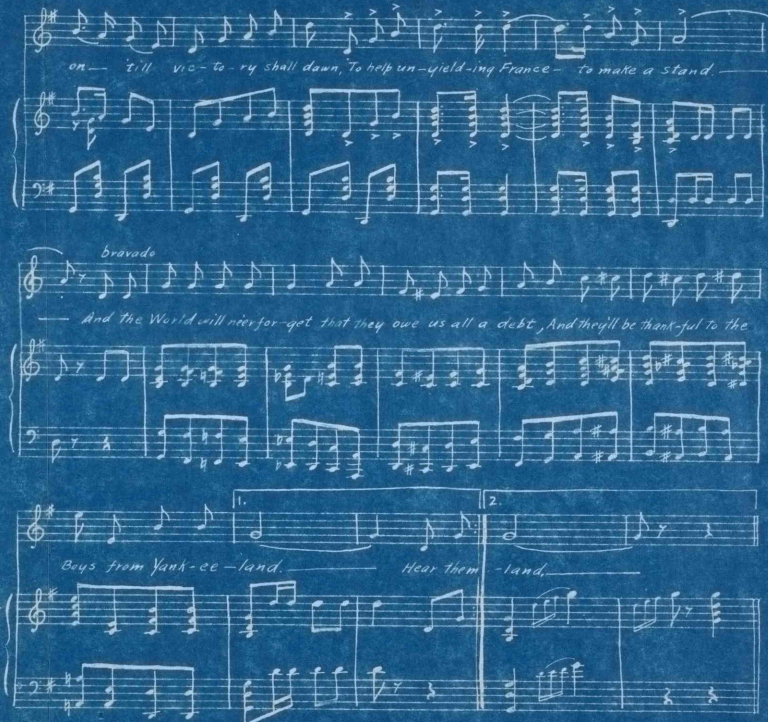
41644



Blueprint Manuscript made by Tom Sawyer, Columbus, Ohio (Composer "Yankee Pep") 11-11-18

NOV 30 1918

©CLE438605