AUG 25 1917 ©CLE409890

THE LATEST AND GREATEST PATRIOTIC SONG

BILLY BOY

WORDS
by
LESTER A. WALTON

MUSIC
by
C. LUCKY ROBERTS

5

WALTON PUB. CO
247 W. 46th ST
NEW YORK

Dedicated to Col. William Hayward of the 15th New York Infantry.

BILLY BOY.

Words by LESTER A. WALTON.

Music by
C. LUCKY ROBERTS.

Marcia.

Piano.

Tom-my At - kins is a war - ri - or bold, Mer-rie
There is Rus - sia with a might - y host, Of her

Eng - land loves him more than gold, And to France the he - ro of to - day stur - dy cos - sacks she can boast, And for val - or no one can for - get is fight-ing in the trench-es miles a - way, Now Bil - ly those fear - less Bel - gian lads whore fight - ing yet, Now Bil - ly

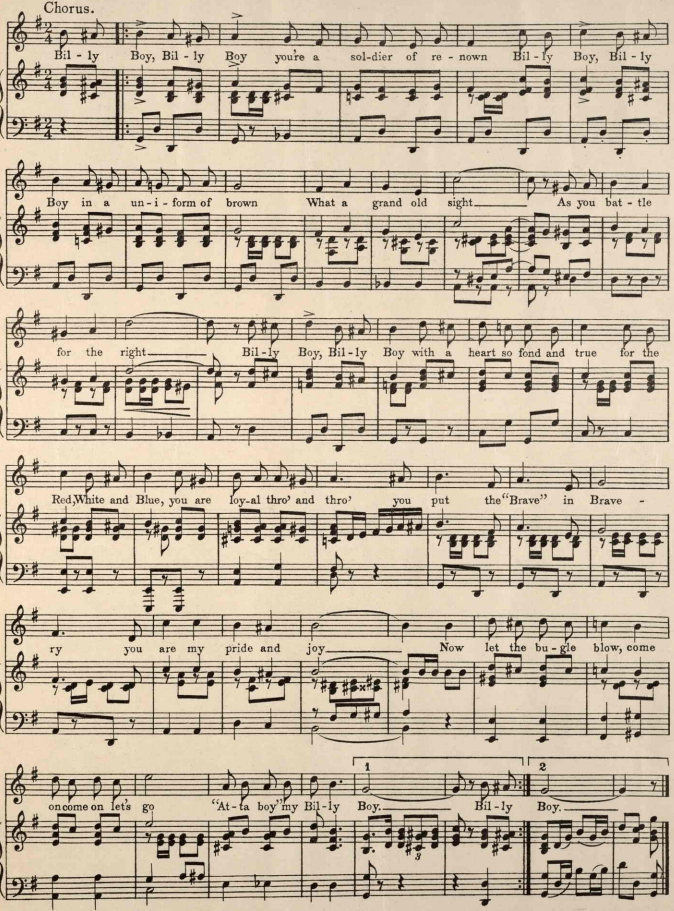
Boy, has gone a - cross the sea to help them in their fight for Lib - er - ty.
Boy, its put right up to you to help them win so show what you can do.

Copyright MCMXVII by Walton Pub. Co. 247 W. 46th St., New York.
All Rights Reserved. International Copyright Secured.
The Publisher reserves the right to the use of this Copyrighted work upon the parts of Instruments serving to reproduce it Mechanically.



E.A. Stege Co. Litho. & Eng. New York

413858