1. Comrades, hear the bat-tle cry; See the foe ad-vanc-ing nigh,
 2. Comrades, hear the orphan's cry, And the widow's moaning sigh;
 3. Comrades, see these wast-ed lands, Dis-so-late by van-dal hands,
 4. Ruth less war that may af-fright, Weak and help-less with their might,
 5. Comrades, hark! the bu-gle sounds, Freedom's call the world a-round,

Sua. Bassi.

With de-fi-ance in his eye,— Rage and en-mi-ty.....
 Help them quickly lest they die, Thro' Boche's cruel-ty.....
 Ty-ant's sword and fie-ry brands, Wrought this mis-er-y.....
 Hon-or, law and conduct right, Stained with treach-ery.....
 And the ech-o doth aston-d, Ten-tou big-o-try.....

ON TO VICTORY.—Concluded.

Fear ye not the Teuton's might; Brave-ly strive for God and right;
 Rise and strike the bru-tal foe, That hath filled the world with woe,
 Strike ye at their wan-ton lust, For our cause is right and just,
 Lands o'erwhelmed with frightfulness, Crushed in Teuton's wild ex-cess:
 Yes, all na-tion's shall be free, From the Boche's cold treachery,

8va. Bassi.

For man-kind we'll win the fight: On to Vic-to-ry!.....
 Let him not un-seath-ed go. On to Vic-to-ry!.....
 In the pow'r of God we trust. On to Vic-to-ry!.....
 'Gainst the heart-less foe now press. On to Vic-to-ry!.....
 Fight like men for lib-er-ty. On to Vic-to-ry!.....
