JUL -3 1918

Spirit of the U. S. A.

©cl E pub. 105818

MARCH SONG

YANKEE VICTORY

Words and Music by JAMES ROMANIS
Arrangement by JOHN O. ROSSER

PRICE 35 CENTS

M 1648
R

Published by J. H. ROMANIS, Box 21, Columbus, Ohio

Yankee Victory

MARCH SONG

Words and Music by JAMES ROMANIS
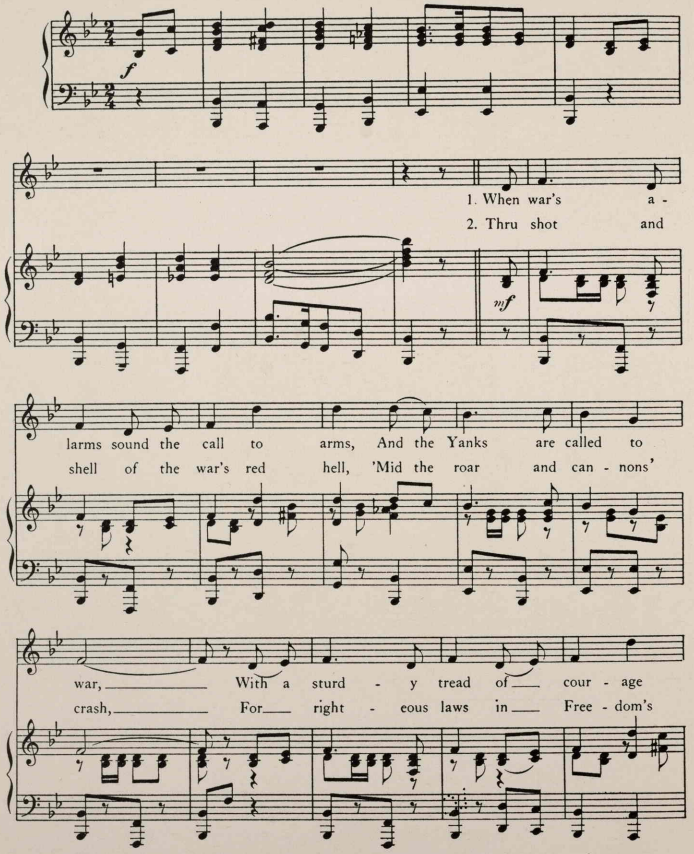
Arr. by John O. Rosser



Copyright 1942 by James Romanis, Columbus, Ohio Printed in U.S.A.

bred, They has - ten to the fore; And cause, the Yanks un - daun - ted dash; While cresc.
f o'er the throng as they march a - long, Their voic - es to the ear come the sounds of cheers, As ev - er mf
cresc
round - ly ring, While ech - oes rise 'neath on they fling, Till goal hard - won and war's dark skies To cheer us as they sing.
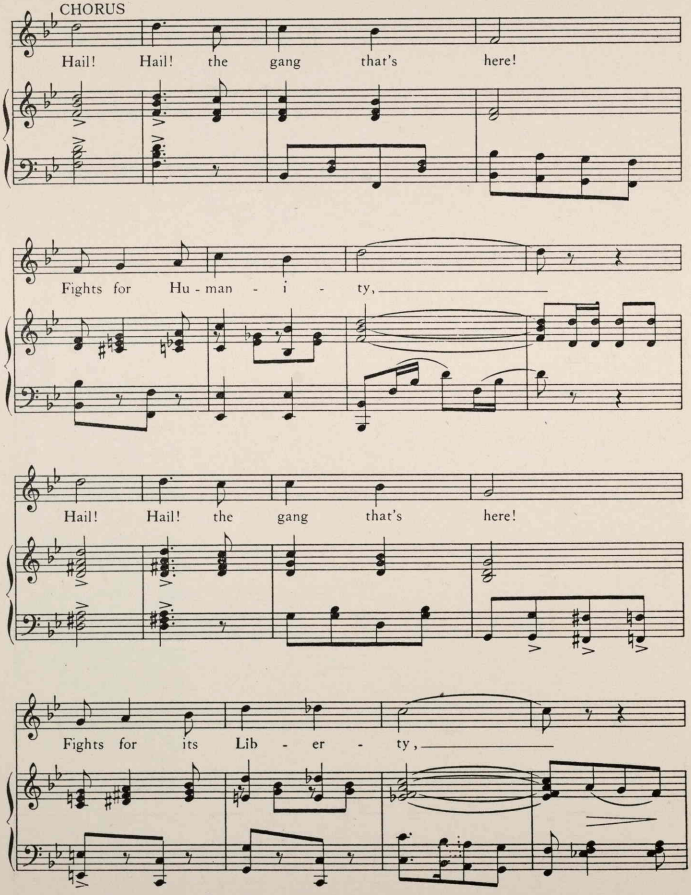
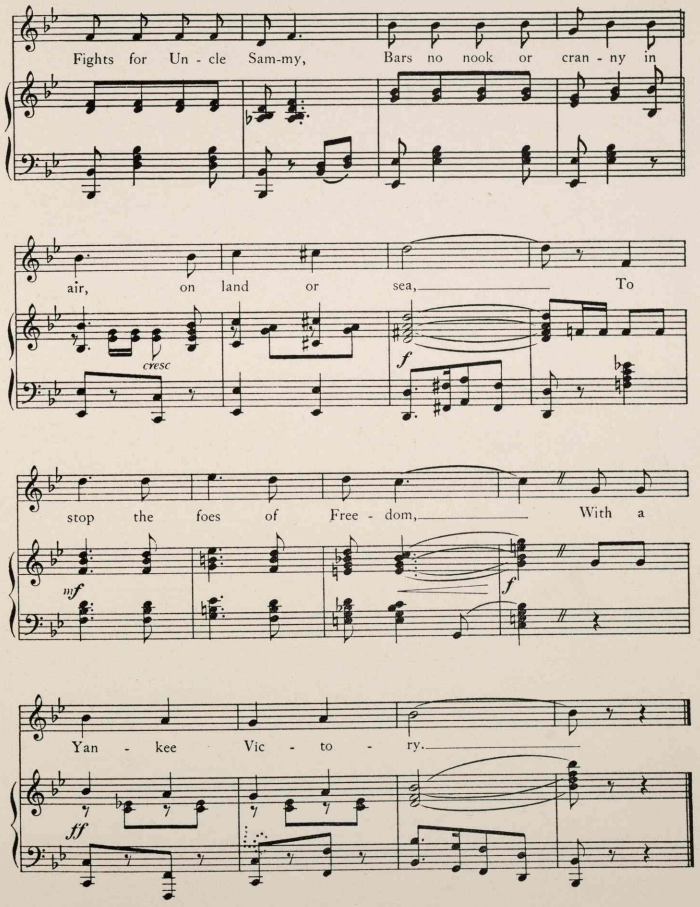
sound - ly done Ex - ult - ant - ly they sing.



CHORUS
Hail! Hail! the gang that's here!
Fights for Hu - man - i - ty,
Hail! Hail! the gang that's here!
Fights for its Lib - er - ty,



Fights for Un - cle Sam-my, Bars no nook or cran - ny in air, on land or sea, To cresc
f stop the foes of Free - dom, With a mf
f Yan - kee Vic - to - ry.
ff

3rd Verse -- Forecast:

When war is won and the fighting done,
Our Yanks return from war,
Greeting friends and kin in a joyous din,
They'll sing just as of yore;
And as we view all the valiant crew
March to their homes again,
We'll hear their song as cheers prolong
The welcoming acclaim.

Cho.