Beautiful New Love Songs

SETTING FORTH

The important events in One's Life, Depicting Life, Love and Home.

Words and Music by Franklin E. Hathaway, concert singer and composer. German and English words. The Poems are separate in themselves, yet so connected as to form a continued story (or cycle). Any one song tells the whole story. Write No. of Copies here.

1. "Love's Awakening" or "I Love You." Depicts the awakening of love, as applied to one in particular. Folds in a charming manner, with the enthusiasm of the first love.
2. "Love's Question." This song suggests the questioning of True Love, the hope for an assuring answer, and a happy future. A beautiful, appealing song; easily sung, but hard to describe in words. You must sing it.
3. "Love's Answer." This song is so written that the refrain may be used as a duet, making it decidedly effective. It is already being used by Elocutionists at a recitation to music. These (7) songs are all well adapted for this purpose.
4. "Promise Me." Positively a Proposal, done in the most appealing style, beautiful poem, easily sung. The wealth of love is expressed in a charming manner, so simple, so dignified, and so appealing. Best wedding song in print.
5. "A Promise." Of all beautiful replies to a charming proposal, here it is. This song is as sweet as the "low on the dower" when stipped by the honey bee. You must sing it with the Proposal cure.
6. "Their Lullaby" (or Baby). This lullaby is the essence of the mother's and father's love. It deals with every joy, trouble and feelings. This song is without doubt the best description of a happy home inspired by love. You should sing and play it. Money back if it worth all we ask for the SET of 7.
7. "Absent." No poem or music ever published that can compare with this song as setting forth the heart throes during the absence of one dearly loved. A real love song.

Most beautiful, most expensive, most appropriate Art Covers on music. Call and see them, or mail your order.

As gifts a set of these songs would be highly acceptable for any occasion. The set of seven sell for no less than $1.75.

See one song—you will want them all—and you should I have them.

Price Only 25c the Copy.
