

OUR BOYS' HOME WELCOME.

W. A. S.

W. A. SCHEBO.

Andantino. mf

1. De - fend - ers of our lib - er - ty, we greet you with our ten-d'rest
 2. We heard a - bout the greed of might, with hate that robbed the earth its
 3. You taught the world our lib - er - ty, brave sons of free-dom's great-est feel - ing; We greet you back to lib - er - ty with might-y songs as thun - der treas - ure; We heard of con-quest and of might that struck the world with hardest na - tion; You shed the light of lib - er - ty, the great-est gift, the best dopeal - ing; You fought our fight for truth and right, and now is hope made bright.

 pres - sure; When con-quest vied, and war - lords lied, for lib - er - ty ye died.
 na - tion; You fought the fight for truth and right, and now is hope made bright.

CHORUS.

We give you now our wel - come home, a wel - come home, a wel - come home;
 But now we give a wel - come home, a wel - come home, a glad cheer home;
 We meet you now with "Wel - come home," a "Wel - come home," from ev - 'ry home;

We're glad to see you home, safe home: 'Tis your wel - come home.
