FEB -5 1919

©CLE444359

AMERICANS IN FRANCE

SONG AND CHORUS

BY

Jacob S. Rosenberg

Arranged by Mrs. G. W. Hankison

R. G. Publishing Co. - - - Cleveland, Ohio

Price, 25 cts.

M1646
.R

Jacob S. Rosenberg

Composer of

Melody of the Birds
March O. K. O. J.
Nation Israel
Just You and I
March U. S. A.
America, My Sweet Land

JACOB ROSENBERG had little time for music eighteen months ago. Then, with his duties as president of the Cleveland Household Supply Company, music to him meant only means of spending spare moments. Today it means everything to him. For today he is blind, and since he was stricken sightless a year and a half ago he has turned the darkness into light by music.

"The Melody of the Birds," a pleasing waltz, and "The March O. K. O. J.," written by Rosenberg for his lodge, the Order of the Knights of Joseph, have met with unbounded success. The third, "Nation Israel," he regards as his best creation.

The blind musician expresses his ideas of melody on his violin in his home, 6011 Quincy ave. He is assisted in his work by Ray Jordan, of 7500 Linwood ave., who jots down the notes on paper as Rosenberg composes. Emanuel Stiel and Lawrence Jaffe, his friends, play the selections at concerts.

The Cleveland Leader, September 4th, 1916

AMERICANS IN FRANCE.

Arranged by Mrs. G. W. Hankison.

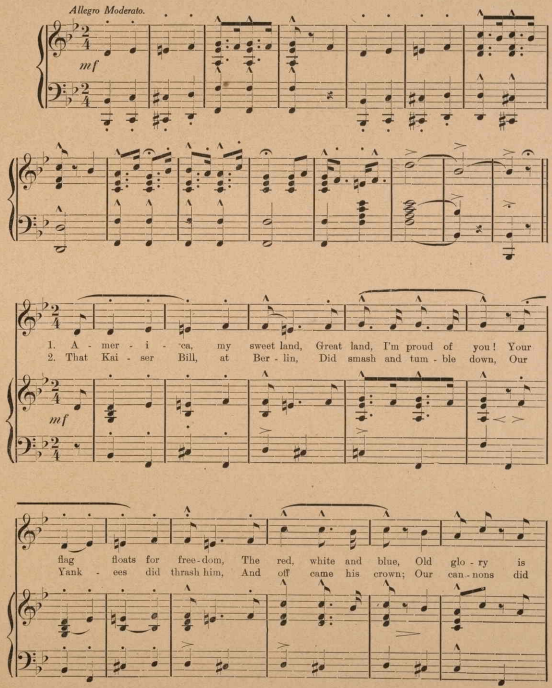
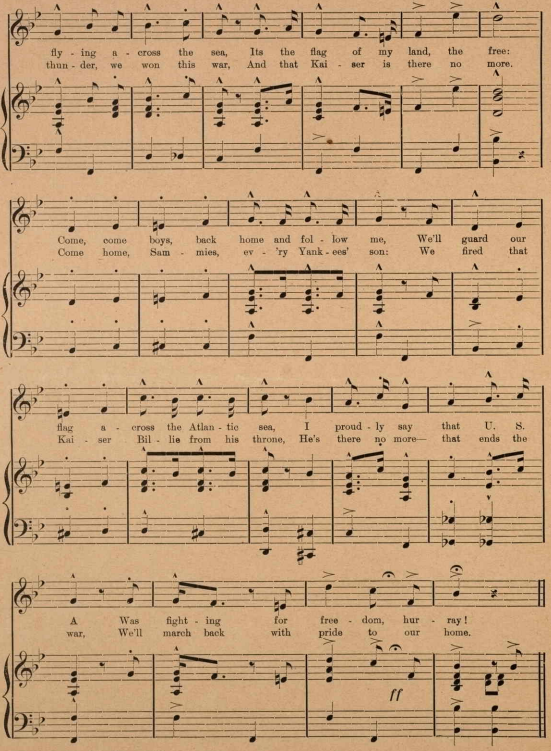
By Jacob S. Rosenberg.



Copyright, MCMXIX, by R. G. Publishing Co., Cleveland, Ohio.



fly - ing a - cross the sea, Its the flag of my land, the free:
thun - der, we won this war, And that Kai - ser is there no more.
Come, come boys, back home and fol - low me, We'll guard our Come home, Sam - mies, ev - 'ry Yank - ees' son: We fired that flag a - cross the Atlan - tic sea, I proud - ly say that U. S.
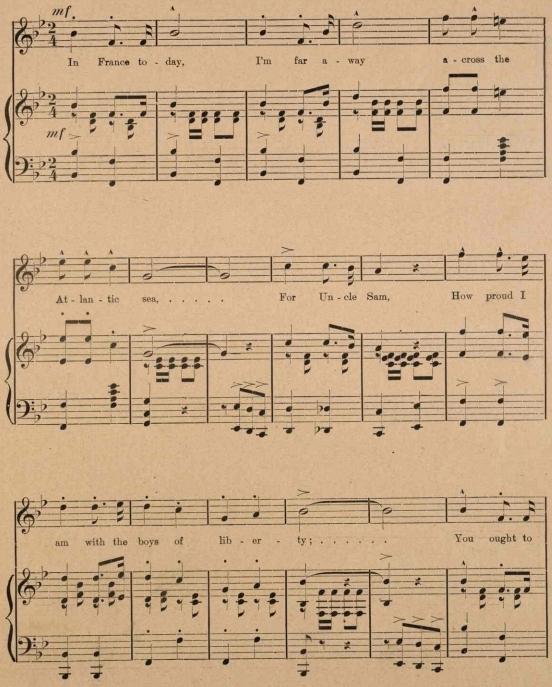
Kai - ser Bil - lie from his throne, He's there no more— that ends the
A Was fight - ing for free - dom, hur - ray!
war, We'll march back with pride to our home.
ff

CHORUS.



mf.
In France to - day, I'm far a - way a - cross the
mf
At - lan - tic sea, ... For Un - cle Sam, How proud I am with the boys of lib - er - ty; . . . . . You ought to hear the French-man cheer: Here comes Un-cle Sam,— They cheered so gay; Great Yanks, hur-ray! hurray! For the boys of U. S. A.

451402