In the Spring when youth's fond fancy
 Lightly turns to thoughts of love,
 Mid the red and white hued flowers
 With the same blue sky above,
 Its a dainty little City
 And its loyal through and through
 And its Red Wing, pretty Red Wing
 For the Red and White and Blue.

In the good old Summer season,
 When the deep blue of the stream
 Mid the white stripes of the breakers
 Gets the sunset's reddened beam,
 Its a charming little City
 And its loyal through and through
 And its Red Wing, pretty Red Wing
 For the Red and White and Blue.

In the Autumn richly colored
 With its changing tints of red,
 Mid the white stripes of the birches
 With the blue sky overhead,
 Its a gorgeous little City
 And its loyal through and through
 And its Red Wing, pretty Red Wing
 For the Red and White and Blue.

When the long dark days of trouble
 Bring the anxious thoughts to mind,
 And we send our best young manhood
 To do battle for our kind,
 Its the best of little citys
 And its loyal through and through
 And its Red Wing, pretty Red Wing
 For the Red and White and Blue.
