

MAY -4 1917
©J.E.104851

THE AMERICAN "MARSEILLAISE"

LAND O'GLORY

PATRIOTIC MARCH SONG

WORDS AND MUSIC

by

C. M. SCHOFIELD

5

THE CHARMFIELD COMPANY,
ALTON, ILLINOIS, U.S.A.

M1646

.S

lc
✓

The American "Marseillaise"
LAND O' GLORY
 PATRIOTIC MARCH SONG

Words & Music by
 C. M. SCHOFIELD

INTRO.
 Tempo di Marcia

Moderato

mf

Oh, "Land o' Glo - ry" be - neath whose skies, Un - furls her ban - ner and Up from the mead - ows and down the hills, Swing forth her leg - ions with hosts a - rise, Who lov - ing Peace, yet love Hon - or more, And a - step that thrills, Moun - tain and plain with their brawn and brain, An - swer

Copyright MCMXVII by Charles McVey Schofield.
 Canada and Great Britain Copyright MCMXVII.

The owner of the copyright reserves the right to reproduce, or re-create this musical composition, or any vocal or instrumental arrangement of same by, or on, any mechanically operated device. Vocal or Instrumental perversion prohibited.

wake to the can-non's deep roar. Her men are might-y, her Free-dom who calls once a - gain. Ar - my and na - vy they maids so fair, Born of the Lib - er - ty in the air, "For - ward" they face the foe, Where is the free-man who will not go? "What - e'er the cry, "on the land and sea, For A - mer - i - ca land of the Free." — cost, Na - tions shall be free, Land o' Glo - ry they an - swer to thee. —

CHORUS

A - mer - i - ca you are my pride, I love your hills and val — leys wide, Your Stars have been so true, On their field of "Blue," And shall not fail, no nev - er! Your sons in for - eign climes shall dream Of "Home Sweet Home" by lake and stream. Here's a toast to you "May skies a - bove be blue, O'er the U - ni - ted States for - ev - er."