VOICE

Wel - come back to old A - mer - i - ca, With the bles - sings of a - bove, For you Here's to Bel - gium, France and It - a - ly, And to Eng - land, oth - ers, too, Who were

mf

went a - way to win the day For the land of peace and love; Now your in this fight with all their might, Un - cle Sam, tho', pulled them thru; Nev - er - name goes down in his - to - ry, All your gal - lant work is through, So more will reign au - toc - ra - cy, "Peace on earth, good will to men?" You don't think it a mys - ter - y That we sing these words to you.

 fought and won de - moc - ra - cy, And you made our slo - gan then.

CHORUS

Come a - long, boys, march a - long, boys, Through the land of lib - er - ty, You have con - quer'd o'er the wrong, boys, You have set the whole world free. Come a - long, boys, with a song, boys, You have sav'd Red, White and Blue, Here's our hand, boys, here's our land, boys, Now we step a - side for you.
