©dE445131

Words and Music by A. L. Lyer.

American Victory March.

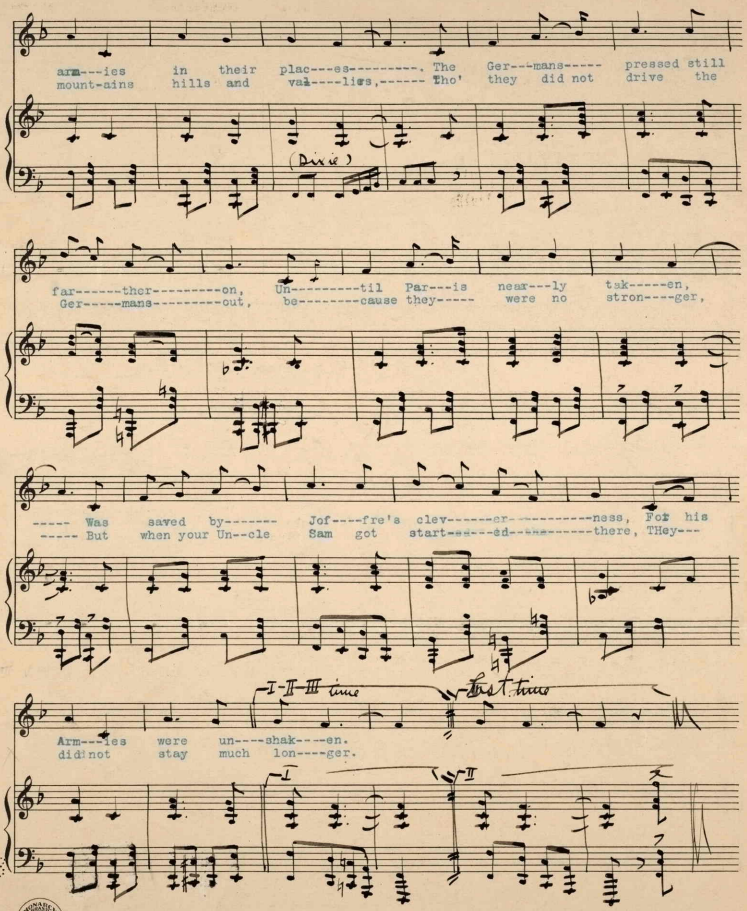
H1646
.5



Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.

453776

JAN 14 1919

3rd VERSE.

The Kaiser said he would take France,
Tho' it cost him many millions,
But he had not counted on the chance
Of Wilson and his billions;
Who moved an army in the field,
And the Huns they started cursing,
For he had placed ~~on~~ Broome two millions of our men,
With the Gallant General Pershing.

4th VERSE.

We are marching forward to Versailles,
And the drums are loudly beating,
The Americans have saved the day,
And the Germans are retreating;
The war's all o'er and we'll turn back,
To the place where we first started,
We'll open up the gates and send some people in,
To relieve the broken hearted.

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.