

Met 10'

WE'RE COMING BACK

WORDS BY ISABELLE BISEL

MUSIC BY
ANDREW J. SCHORR

PUBLISHED BY
ANDREW J. SCHORR
FORT WAYNE, IND.

WE'RE COMING BACK

Words by ISABELLE BISEL

Music by
ANDREW J. SCHORR

INTRO. Moderato

VOICE

Yes, moth - er, I have fought a gal - lant fight For free - dom and the cause of Oh yes, there'll be some va - cant chairs we know, ALL won't re - turn that you saw right. I've been where shells were burst - ing loud and quick, And go; Yet they will live in mem'ry's gol - den hour; Each had to breath where gas was thick; When think - ing of my home and deed will grow like some sweet flow'r. The es - sence of their spir - it you, so dear; A pray'r was min - gled with each tear: But oft will be So near, you'll fan - cy you can see Your International Copyright secured

Copyright MCMXVIII by A. J. Schorr.

now it's o - ver and I'm com - ing back, I'm glad to think I did not slack.
 boy once more; that boy so strong and brave Who died, his country for to save.

CHORUS

O moth - er dear, we're coming home to you; Your boys in kha-ki and in blue. We're saved the hon - or of our flag once more, But all are glad that war is o'er. We're com - ing back to those, we love so well; And man - y war tales we shall tell Of cap - ture, or some glor - ious charge we made, When your own boys were in the raid.

451799