JUL 28 1917 ©LE407159

Down with the Kaiser

(What the Allied People Say)

Frederick A. Baker

C. de laux-Roger

Flute

Violin

mf

1 = What is
2 = Why
3 = For

f mf

all this row a-bout? Say the Kais-er in dis-may. To put you out, the foes I was at fault, oh, says the Kais-er in dis-may. To war you went, to war you went, of you a peace, Says the Kais-er in dis-may. Down a bootfair you-ker peace the

"THE SUPER"

Yankee peo-ple say, Why are you so awfully vexed? Says the Kais-er in dis-may. We're Kid-gumption-ple say, 'Twas but a scrap of pa-per, Says the Kais-er in dis-may. With All Yan-kee peo-ple say, Set us hell and fetch a whirl. Says the Kais-er in dis-may. When

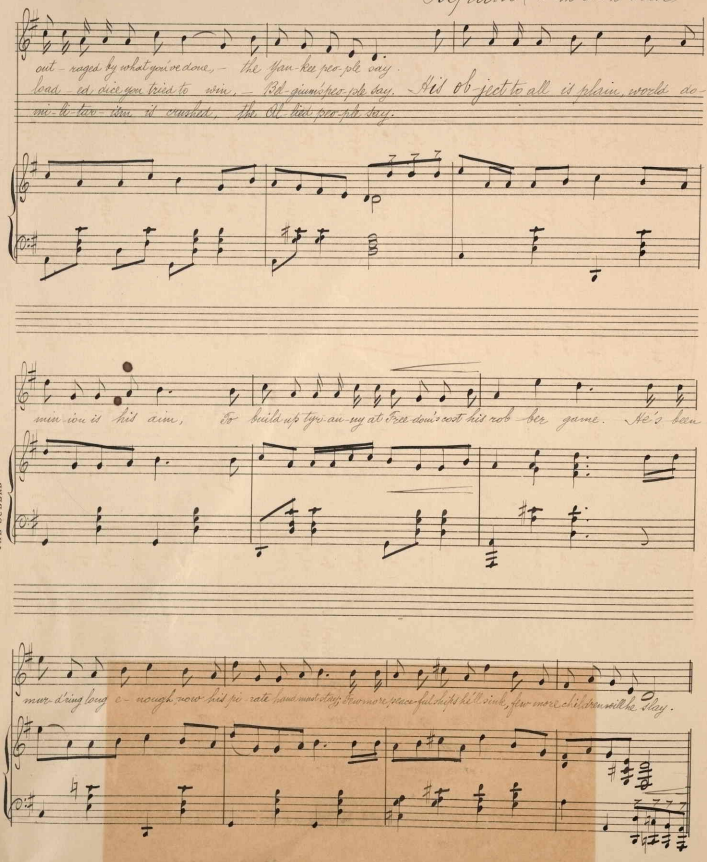
No. 1. 12 lines.

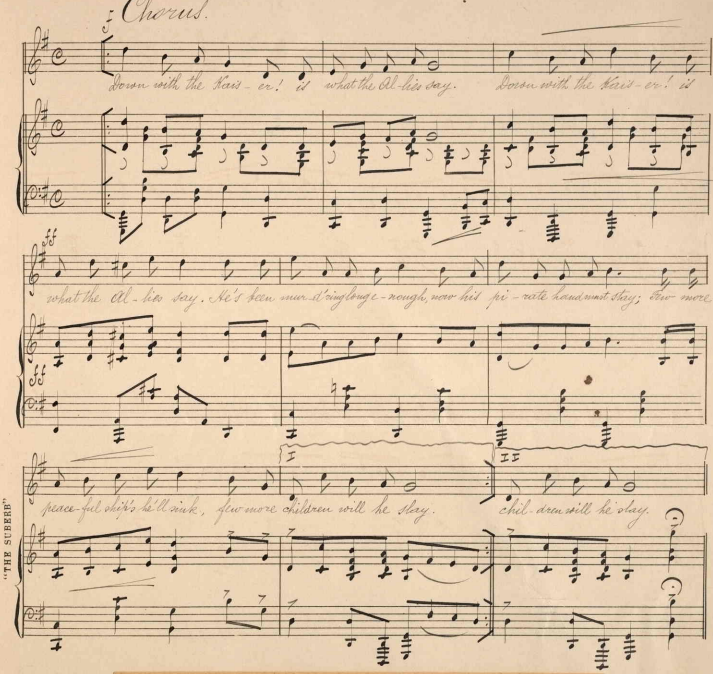
M1646
.R9

Refrain (with each verse)



"THE SUBMARINE"

No. 1. 12 lines.



"THE SUBERB"

IV.

But I rule by right divine, says the Kaiser
in dismay.
A tyrant's plea, a tyrant's plea, the Allied people say.
I will prove my right by might, says the Kaiser
in dismay
Might we'll fight by day and night, the Allied people say.

His object to all Etc.

No. 1. 12 lines.

"THE SUBERB"

No. 1. 12 lines.

414436