©CLE116557 JAN -4 1918

Then I'll Return To You

(after the war is over)

by U.S. 3.

C.C. Ruhtz.
C.S. Buxton.
G. Caxtwright.
New Castle Indiana.
Dec 1917

M1646
.R

COPYRIGHT by C.C. RUHTZ

Then I'll Return To You

INTRODUCTION.

MODERATO.

Voice

1. The time dear is nigh, When I say "Good-by" To mor-row will bring you great
2. 'Tis al-most a year, since I saw you Dear, I hope you are still brave and

molto expressivo

sor- row our coun-try you know, Shall not go be ~ low; Du-ty is true, — the en-em-ies now, are loos-ing some how, as they run call-ing me dear I must go, I know how you'll feel, when I am a- way, I from the old Red, White, and Blue, Your tears will soon change, from sor-row to Joy,

Know you'll be hap-py a gain soon some day, to mor row we parade, cheer up and be you hear the tramp of the brave U. S. boys, the days are so long, as we still fight
Chorus
brave, white I am a way for the U. S. A Af-ter the on, now Sing ing and whist ling this good old song war dear is, o ver then I'll re-turn to you I Know you'll be proud then to see me as I wave the old Red White and Blue my moth-er my sis-ters and friends dear, will be there with a glad hand I know af-ter the war dear is ov- er

(1)
(2)
then I'll re- turn to you.
you.