

OCT 16 1918

© 1918 J. E. P. 113

WHEN YOU HEAR THE MARTIAL BAND

BY
LEON P. RUNDELL

AS SUNG BY THE ENDWELL QUARTETTE

H1646
.R

When You Hear The Martial Band

Arr by Brian O'Brien

LEON P. RUNDLELL

VOICE

Our sol-dier boys are brave-ly fight-ing for de-moc-ra-There's sharpnel fly-ing, sol-diers ly-ing wounded ev-'rycy, and they need some help from you. ——— It's up to you and I to sac-ri-where, and it's all for you and I. ——— What have you done to stop the Hun from fice our lux-u-ry, and see what we can do. ——— Ev-'ry good A-win-ning 'o-ver there, so our boys wont have to die. ——— Lit-tle Red Cross mer-i-can is bound to do his share, to help our Kha-ki he-ros o-ver there, ——— And nurs-es they are do-ing all they can, and you can do a lot if you just try, ——— And when the band be-gins to play and the boys come home to stay Geel what a hap - py day. _____

 when the band be-gins to play and the boys come home to stay Geel what a hap - py day. _____

CHORUS

When you hear the martial band play-ing dear old Dix-ie - land," and the boys come march-ing home, _____ Ev-ry-one in step and full of Yan-kee pep, read-y to hold his own. _____ Un-cle Sam is there to teach the Kai - ser _____ a les-son that is sure to make him wi - ser, _____ When you hear the mar-tial band play-ing

1 2
 dear old Dix-ie - land," and the boys come marching home. _____ When you home.

440660