

DEC -8 1917

©CLE413848

For Thee America!

Words and Music by
C. TURNER SCHUBARTH

We strike im-pas-sioned chords for thee, Ma-
We live a-gain, a - gain in - flamed With We hold the vis-ion of thy youth When jes - tic soul, where faith hath elung; — We waf-t new songs, both bold and pas - sion's zeal for free - men's right, — Since 'tor - turing ty - rants un - a - dreams are preg-nant with the good; — When all man-kind with jus - tice, free — And hail thy ban - ner, heav'n - ward flung: So shamed, — Have roused the vig - or of thy might; So truth — Shall dom - i - nate the e - vil brood! We glo - ry of thy morn-ing sun — Shall be far-spread withloy - al - ty!

on - ward press with thy pure aims — To gain the peace that free - dom claims!
hark to call of world - wide needs! — Now may thy race be great in deeds! —

REPLICATION
DEC 5 1917

Copyright 1917 by C. Turner Schubarth

M1646

BOSTON, MASS., 5

420667