

VOLUNTEER BATTLE SONG AND MARCH

WORDS BY
ANDREW J. HITCHCOCK

MUSIC BY
MARY R. SMITH

PUBLISHED BY
A. J. HITCHCOCK
NASHVILLE, TENN.

M 1646
.S

Volunteer Battle Song and March.

Words by
ANDREW J. HITCHCOCK.

Music by MARY R. SMITH.

Moderato.

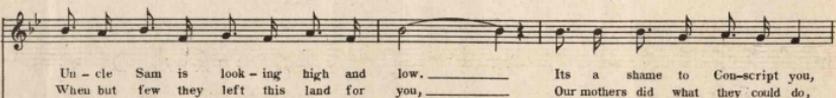

VOICE.

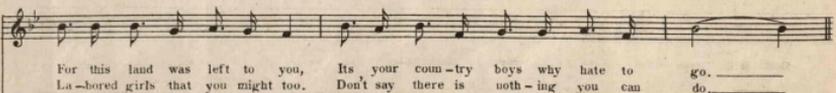

Call - ing for vol - un - teers, How ma - ny are there here.
Each must a bur - den bear, For our fathers la - bored there,

Un - cle Sam is look - ing high and low. Its a shame to Con - script you,
When but few they left this land for you, Our mothers did what they could do,

For this land was left to you, Its your coun - try boys why hate to go.
La - bored girls that you might too. Don't say there is noth - ing you can do.

CHORUS.

While the he - roes of our land and coun - try sleep - eth; There the weep - ing wil - lows grow, there the stars and stripes un - furled, O'er the na - tions dead that sleeps. When the fields are cleared, of forms of hu - man dead, And the bat - tle cry is o'er, to their homes be - yond they go.

God will wipe the tears a - way through - out all e - ter - ni - ty.

OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

MEMORANDUM FOR THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

DATE: 10/10/80

SECRET

CONFIDENTIAL