Valse Moderato

The piano introduction is in 3/4 time with a key signature of two flats (B-flat and E-flat). It features a waltz-like melody in the right hand and a harmonic accompaniment in the left hand. The piece begins with a series of chords and moves through several measures, ending with a final chord and a fermata.

On-ly a let-ter to Home, Sweet Home, from some - one far a - way,
On-ly an ans-wer from Home, Sweet Home, to some - one o'er the sea,

The first vocal line is in 3/4 time with a key signature of two flats. It consists of two lines of lyrics with corresponding musical notation in a soprano or alto clef. The melody is simple and follows the rhythm of the lyrics.

On-ly a boy a-cross the foam, dream-ing of yes - ter - day, There's a Tel-ling a boy to keep right on, fight - ing for Lib - er - ty, There's a

The second vocal line continues the melody from the first line. It includes two lines of lyrics with musical notation in a soprano or alto clef. The accompaniment in the piano part continues to support the vocal line.

pic-ture that comes to his mind, Of the some-one he left be - hind.
moth-er who's proud of her son, And she'll wait till the fight is won.

The third and final vocal line concludes the piece. It features two lines of lyrics with musical notation in a soprano or alto clef. The piano accompaniment provides a steady harmonic background.

CHORUS

Some-one is long-ing for Home, Sweet Home, Thousands of miles a - way, But he's proud to fight for a cause that is right, He'll bat-tle on till the end's in sight And while he is sigh-ing, He sees some-one try-ing to smile through clouds of gray

Some-one is long-ing for Home, Sweet Home, thousands of miles a - way.

CHORUS

Save all your love and I'll save all of mine, 'Till I come back to you, Though we must part while I'm o'er the sea Down in your heart you'll be proud of me so light up your face with a smile lit-tle girl,

You have no cause to feel blue. For we'll have a Yan-kee Doo-dle wed-
