

THE FLAG OF LIBERTY

Musical score for 'The Flag of Liberty' with lyrics: 'Cheer for the Flag! Its Stars and Stripes of Glo-ry... Li-ber-ty! Pro-tect Huma-nity! Ba-nish all Tyranny!'

NOTED EUROPEAN OFFERS SUGGESTION FOR NEW NATIONAL SONG

London, England, Dec. 8.—The noted French composer, Maurice Strakosky, has suggested to the British government...

4000 Dead Is the Latest Official Estimate of the Halifax Horror

Continued From Page One... Halifax, N.S., Dec. 8.—The Halifax disaster has been estimated to have cost the lives of 4,000 persons...

Advertisement for Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, featuring the number '667799' and text about stomach misery.

Advertisement for Dr. D. Challin Fair's Naprapathy, including text: 'LARGE FORCE IS MOBILIZED BY RED CROSS IN HALIFAX' and 'Relieves Heartburn'.

Advertisement for 'This Clock Makes Its Own Electricity' with illustrations of a clock and text describing its features and price.

Advertisement for 'Pulled Up by the Roots' featuring a tall man in a top hat and text: 'YOU CAN readily imagine the shock it would be to have some one suddenly pluck you out of your environment...'.

Advertisement for 'THE NORTH AMERICAN' newspaper with text: 'IT WILL Follow Him Wherever He Goes' and subscription information.

Advertisement for 'SORE THROAT' with text: 'Cough, Croup and Sore Throat' and a list of symptoms.

Advertisement for 'ARMY AND NAVY SUBSCRIPTION COUPON' with a form for mailing subscription orders.

Garfield Settles Coal Disputes, Gets Cars, Warns Gougers

GARFIELD THREATENS TO STOP SUPPLY OF PHILA. COAL RETAILER

Warns Firm That It Must Co-operate With Fuel Administration

BROADTOP END ROADS

Masters and Operators in Bedouin and Huntington Counties Ploved to Agree

(Philadelphia Special.)—The Pennsylvania Fuel Administration has today threatened to stop the supply of coal to the Philadelphia coal retailer, if the latter does not agree to co-operate with the fuel administration.

A firm of coal operators in Philadelphia, which have been operating under a license from the fuel administration, have today threatened to stop the supply of coal to the Philadelphia coal retailer, if the latter does not agree to co-operate with the fuel administration.

The fuel administration has today threatened to stop the supply of coal to the Philadelphia coal retailer, if the latter does not agree to co-operate with the fuel administration.

REVOLT IN PORTUGAL, RIOTING AT LISBON

Democracy at Capital in Face of Government; Trouble Over Food

TWO KILLED, 60 HURT

BARCELONA, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A riot broke out in Barcelona today, resulting in the death of two persons and the injury of 60 others.

SAW MYSTICUS CRAFT IN VICINITY OF LISBON

AN ATLANTIC PORT CITY, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A mystic craft was seen in the vicinity of Lisbon today, according to reports received here.

ARMISTICE SUSPENDED IN HOPE ALLIES WILL ACT

Truce Says Germans Must Not Move Forward; Bolsheviks Risk Now Becomes Astorisk in Russia

LONDON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—The armistice between the Allies and Germany was today suspended in the hope that the Allies will act more vigorously against the Germans.

WORLD'S RELIGION BELIEVERS

THEY BELIEVE IN THE EXISTENCE OF GOD, BUT NOT IN THE EXISTENCE OF JESUS CHRIST, WHO THEY BELIEVE TO BE A MAN WHO WAS BORN IN BETHLEHEM AND DIED IN JERUSALEM.

AMERICAN CONSUL HERE, NICHOLAS HAS ESCAPED

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—The American consul in Petrograd has today reported that the Russian emperor, Nicholas II, has escaped from the city.

WOULD TELL HOW MORSE GOT HIS PAROLE

Man in Suit Declines to Advise How He Obtained Freedom

SEERS PAY POOR SERVICE

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—The seers who were called upon to predict the outcome of the war have today paid a poor service.

ARGENTINA STRIKERS DELAY MEAT FOR THE ALLIES

New South Cause Closing of American Packing Houses

FORCE FELLOW-WORKMAN TO SWEAR ALLEGIANCE

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A factory worker in Topeka today forced a fellow-workman to swear allegiance to the United States.

DR. A. J. MELBY CHIEF TEST OF CATTLE PLAGUE, IBS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—Dr. A. J. Melby, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, has today announced the results of his test of cattle plague.

SCHOOL BOARD BARS BROS AS GERMAN PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A school board in Washington today barred a group of boys from attending school because they were carrying German propaganda.

REPUBLIC OF ECUADOR BREAKS WITH GERMANY

Severance of Relations Follows Refusal to Receive Teuton Minister

SHOWS UNITED AMERICA

BOULEVARD NEWS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—The boulevard news today reported that the government has decided to sever relations with Germany.

SWISS GET CONTRACTS FOR 3500 AMERICAN BARBARKS

BERNE, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—The Swiss government has today secured contracts for 3500 American barbarks.

COAL SHIPPED ON LAKES EXCEEDS TOTAL IN 1916

CHICAGO, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—The amount of coal shipped on the Great Lakes today exceeds the total amount shipped in 1916.

5250.00 COMPENSATION FOR STRAIN IN THROAT

Man Who Was Talking Anti- or Being in Bank

WEALTH ALONE WON'T WIN WAR, LANE WARMS

Victory Depends Upon Spirit of People, Secretary of Treasury Says

UNABLE TO REMOVE IT ALL MUST CO-OPERATE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—The government is today unable to remove all German propaganda from the country, and must therefore co-operate with the people.

ARGENTINA STRIKERS DELAY MEAT FOR THE ALLIES

New South Cause Closing of American Packing Houses

FORCE FELLOW-WORKMAN TO SWEAR ALLEGIANCE

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A factory worker in Topeka today forced a fellow-workman to swear allegiance to the United States.

PRESIDENT WILL NAME RR. ADMINISTRATOR, IS BELIEF

Government Control of Lines Without Operation Plan That Probably Will Be Adopted

By Agon Nelson

It is believed that the president will name a railroad administrator to take charge of the government's control of the railroads.

Uncertainty Caused by Commerce Board's Demand Chief Reason

INVOKE MORE FACTORS

Early Appearance of Annual Reports Will Provide Basis for Decision

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—The uncertainty caused by the Commerce Board's demand for more facts is believed to be the chief reason for the delay in the appearance of the annual reports.

SCHOOL FOR FOOD DEALERS TO TEACH CONTROL DUTIES

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A school for food dealers is being organized in Pittsburgh to teach them their control duties.

DR. A. J. MELBY CHIEF TEST OF CATTLE PLAGUE, IBS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—Dr. A. J. Melby, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, has today announced the results of his test of cattle plague.

SCHOOL BOARD BARS BROS AS GERMAN PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A school board in Washington today barred a group of boys from attending school because they were carrying German propaganda.

ARGENTINA STRIKERS DELAY MEAT FOR THE ALLIES

New South Cause Closing of American Packing Houses

FORCE FELLOW-WORKMAN TO SWEAR ALLEGIANCE

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A factory worker in Topeka today forced a fellow-workman to swear allegiance to the United States.

DR. A. J. MELBY CHIEF TEST OF CATTLE PLAGUE, IBS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—Dr. A. J. Melby, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, has today announced the results of his test of cattle plague.

SCHOOL BOARD BARS BROS AS GERMAN PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A school board in Washington today barred a group of boys from attending school because they were carrying German propaganda.

ARGENTINA STRIKERS DELAY MEAT FOR THE ALLIES

New South Cause Closing of American Packing Houses

FORCE FELLOW-WORKMAN TO SWEAR ALLEGIANCE

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A factory worker in Topeka today forced a fellow-workman to swear allegiance to the United States.

WESTERN RAILROADS ASK POSTPONEMENT OF FREIGHT RATE HEARING

Uncertainty Caused by Commerce Board's Demand Chief Reason

INVOLVE MORE FACTORS

Early Appearance of Annual Reports Will Provide Basis for Decision

SCHOOL FOR FOOD DEALERS TO TEACH CONTROL DUTIES

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A school for food dealers is being organized in Pittsburgh to teach them their control duties.

DR. A. J. MELBY CHIEF TEST OF CATTLE PLAGUE, IBS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—Dr. A. J. Melby, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, has today announced the results of his test of cattle plague.

SCHOOL BOARD BARS BROS AS GERMAN PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A school board in Washington today barred a group of boys from attending school because they were carrying German propaganda.

ARGENTINA STRIKERS DELAY MEAT FOR THE ALLIES

New South Cause Closing of American Packing Houses

FORCE FELLOW-WORKMAN TO SWEAR ALLEGIANCE

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A factory worker in Topeka today forced a fellow-workman to swear allegiance to the United States.

DR. A. J. MELBY CHIEF TEST OF CATTLE PLAGUE, IBS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—Dr. A. J. Melby, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, has today announced the results of his test of cattle plague.

SCHOOL BOARD BARS BROS AS GERMAN PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A school board in Washington today barred a group of boys from attending school because they were carrying German propaganda.

ARGENTINA STRIKERS DELAY MEAT FOR THE ALLIES

New South Cause Closing of American Packing Houses

FORCE FELLOW-WORKMAN TO SWEAR ALLEGIANCE

TOPEKA, Kan., Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A factory worker in Topeka today forced a fellow-workman to swear allegiance to the United States.

DR. A. J. MELBY CHIEF TEST OF CATTLE PLAGUE, IBS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—Dr. A. J. Melby, chief of the Bureau of Animal Industry, has today announced the results of his test of cattle plague.

SCHOOL BOARD BARS BROS AS GERMAN PROPAGANDA

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(Special.)—A school board in Washington today barred a group of boys from attending school because they were carrying German propaganda.

TAKING A DESPERATE CHANCE, THE BELLAROS ESCAPE BY ONE BOLDSTROKE. BUT THAT'S - PERHAPS THE WORST IS NOT YET OVER.