1

Far across the Waters to a Foreign Land
Ships are sailing, sailing ev'ry day,
With a sturdy Army which will take a stand
To hold the Prussian Bear at Bay!
They are Boys from Frisco up to Dear Old Maine;
They are going far across the Sea,
With a vow that they will ne'er come back again
'Til the World's Safe for Democracy--
'Til the World's Safe for Democracy!

CHORUS:

There's a Trumpet sounding in Alsace-Lorraine;
There's an Army in Dear Old France;
They are Boys in Khaki,
Chearful, strong and stocky,
Who will make the Kaiser Dance!
They are Fearless Fighters from Old U. S. A.,
They love Peace and Liberty--
All in the Fray -- paving the Way
For the World's Democracy.

2

At the Front with Haig and Pershing in the Fight,
Valient Boys are making History,
Surging onward at the Foe with all their Might
To win a speedy Victory.
"Don't forget Tuscania" is their Battle Cry;
Lusitania's in their memory.
From the Linden Tree Old Glory soon will fly
When the World's Safe for Democracy--
When the World's Safe for Democracy!

CHORUS:

On the Battle Line in Flanders every Gun
Blazes forth for all Humanity;
Bombs are flying through the Air upon the Hun
To teach him real "Diplomacy,"
Ev'ry Allied Marksman is a trained Crack - Shot,
Ev'ry one of them is there to see
Kaiser Wilhelm's Outfit sent to where it's Hot--
And the World Safe for Democracy--
And the World Safe for Democracy!
