Song Of The Soldiers

Music of "Maryland My Maryland"

Words by Elizabeth Bangs

Allegretto

mf

O na-tive land, O na-tive land How could we leave thy hap-pystrand 1 Twas du-ty sum-moned us a-way With thee no long-er might we stay.
 2 Our loved ones here, Our loved ones here All sent us forth with words of cheer, 3 (On for-eign shore, on for-eign shore, Our flag for free-dom proud we bore;
 (As brothers there the foe to meet, As vic-tors then our friends to greet.

CHORUS

So fight we will if fight we must, And this we know our cause is just; For coun-try, home, ally and friend, For hu-man free-dom with-out end.

We are com-ing for our com-mon cause by hun-dred thou-sands more To They have called and we are com-ing to set the Bel-gians free, To From Af-ri-ca, Ar-me-ni-a and from far In-dia's land, Come

France and Ire-land's friend-ly coasts and to Old Eng-land's shore, To give to Serb and Por-tu-guese a pledge of lib-er-ty, The ti-dings of the vic-tories of Free-doms glor-ious band. The pun-ish tyr-ant sel-fish-ness, con-vince it of its wrong, Main-Rus-sians and I-tal-ians we join as bro-thers all, Rou-Cu-bans and Ca-na-di-ans are with us to a man, New tain the small be-fore the great, the weak a-against the strong. O, ma-ni-a and loy-al Greece, we lis-ten to your call. O, Zea-land sends her bra-vest sons, Aus-tralia leads the van. O, from we dare not look be-hind us but stead fast-ly be-fore, We Jap-an is not for-got-ten, Nor Mon-te-ne-gro more, The work-shop and from stu-dent desk, from rich and poor man's door We are are com-ing Wales and Scot-land, by hun-dred thou-sands more.

neu-trals soon will join with us, by hun-dred thou-sands more.
com-ing for our com-mon cause by hun-dred thou-sands more.

Music Arranged From
H. S. CUTLER

By M. Spofford and A. P. Moor

When all the ear-nest world had come To feel that God a - bove A Then mon-ster in a hu-man form In-spired by lust of pow'r, Let mind to man for thought had giv'n, A heart for joy and love; That if we all could not a-gree, So loose with-in the world once more The war dogs for their hour, Our watchful coun-try warn-ing sent, No lu-tion we must find With-out the aw-ful woes of war But trust-ing to the mind.

heed to us they gave Then up we sprang if aid we might And thus the world yet save.

1st Cho. That peace was our watch-word, A peace that should last; And 2nd Cho. Let peace be our watch-word, A peace that shall last; And 1st Cho. That gone was the last war up - on this glad earth Meant for 2nd Cho. That this is the last war up - on the glad earth Meant for 1st Cho. all men as bro - thers this thought should hold fast:- 2nd Cho. all men as bro - thers this thought shall hold fast:-

1st Cho. just - ice and un - ion, for good - ness and mirth.
2nd Cho. free - dom and un - ion, for good - ness and mirth.
