Oh say can you see by the dawn's ear-ly light, What so proud-ly we
On the shore dim-ly seen thru the mists of the deep, Where the foes haughtily And where is that band, whose vaunt-ing-ly swore, That the hav-oc of Oh thus be it ev-er, when free-man shall stand, Be-tween their loved hailed at the twilight's last gleam-ing, Whose broad stripes and bright stars thru the host in dread sil-lence re-po-se, What is that which the breeze, o'er the war and the bat-tles con-fu-sion, A home and a coun-try should honor and the wars des-o-la-tion, Blest with vic-try and peace, may the per-ill-ous fight, O'er the ram-parts we watched were so gal-lant-ly low-er-ing steep, As it fit-ful-ly blows, half con-ceals half dis-leave us no more? Their blood has washed out their foul foot-steps po-heaven re-s-cued land Praise the power that hath made and pre-served us stream-ing? And the rock-ets red glare, the bombs burst-ing in air, Gave clos-as? Now it catch-es the gleam of the morn-ing's first beam, In full lu-tion, No ref-uge could save the hire-ling and slave, From the na-tion! Then con-quer we must, when our cause it is just, And proof thru the night that our flag was still there! O say does that glo-ry re-lect-ed now shines on the stream! 'Tis the Star Span-gled tar-ror of flight, or the gloom of the grave! And the Star Span-gled this be our mol-to: "IN GOD IS OUR TRUST!" And the Star Span-gled Star Span-gled Ban-ner yet wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?

Ban-ner oh long may it wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!
Ban-ner in tri-umph shall wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!
Ban-ner in tri-umph shall wave O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!
