

Copyright 1900
FEB 19 1910

WE ARE COMING

MARCHING-SONG OF AMERICA

Music by

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA

Words by EDITH WILLIS LINN

Price, 60 cents

(Published also as a March for Piano)

M1646

.5

New York · G. SCHIRMER · Boston

We Are Coming
Marching-Song of America

Words by
Edith Willis Linn

Music by
John Philip Sousa

March of Liberty

WE ARE COMING
MARCHING-SONG OF AMERICA

From the mountains wreathed and hoary,
From the river and the plain,
From the seaboard and the valley,
We are marching forth again.
We are marching, marching, marching,
Millions marching to the call
Of justice for the nations
And liberty for all!

CHORUS
*We are marching, marching, marching,
Millions marching to the call
Of justice for the nations
And liberty for all!*

We are coming, we are coming,
As the pilgrims came of yore,
We will rally 'round Old Glory
As our fathers did before.
We are marching, etc.

With no malice in our bosom,
With no hate, no dream of greed,
Where the stricken millions beckon,
Where the maimed and starving bleed,
We are marching, etc.

28190

EDITH WILLIS LINN

These verses were awarded the prize of $500 offered by
"Life" for the best poem suitable for use as a war song.

The composer's royalties from the sale of this marching-song will be devoted to "Life's" Fresh Air
Fund, until peace is declared.

We Are Coming

Words by
Edith Willis Linn*

Marching-Song of America

Music by
John Philip Sousa

Tempo di Marcia

Piano

1. From the moun-tains— wreathed and hoar - y, — From the riv - er and the
 2. We are com - ing, — we are com - ing, — As the pil - grims came of
 3. With no mal - ice — in our bo - som, — With no ho'e, no dream of

* These verses were awarded the prize of five hundred dollars offered by "Life" for the best poem suitable for use as a warsong.

plain, From the sea-board and the val-ley, We are yore, We will ral-ly round Old Glo-ry As our greed, Where the strick-en mil-lions beck-on, Where the march-ing forth a-gain, } We are march-ing, march-ing, march-ing,

 fa-thers did be-fore, }
 maimed and starv-ing bleed,

In an-swer to the call Of jus-tice for the
 Mil-lions march-ing

Chorus
 na-tions And lib-er-ty for all. We are

march - ing, march - ing, march - ing, In an - swer
Mil - lions march - ing

f

to the call Of jus - tice for the

na - tions And lib - er - ty for all

D. C.

AMERICAN
PATRIOTIC SONGS
and
NATIONAL AIRS

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER
AMERICA
OUR AMERICA
YANKEE DOODLE
BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

THE BATTLE CRY OF FREEDOM
DIXIE LAND
HAIL, COLUMBIA!
TRAMP, TRAMP, TRAMP
COLUMBIA, THE GEM OF THE OCEAN

ISSUED in the same excellent form as its companion collection, The National Anthems of the Allies, this book comprises a number of the best known and most treasured American songs. The authentic words and melody of each of the airs listed above are given with piano accompaniment and the songs are so arranged that they may also be sung in chorus. This attractive collection is an ideal book for the home and also well fills the need of schools, churches and clubs for an authoritative collection of American patriotic songs.

"The musical type and the printed text are clear and well spaced, the songs are arranged to be sung in unison, with piano accompaniment, the latter in some instances serving as a guide for part reading." Providence Journal.

"A sensible and serviceable war-time collection, with conservative, safe harmonizations." Chicago Tribune.

"Ten national airs are here printed in plain, large type, all stanzas being printed out in full under the music. At the small cost, every one should possess this compendium of American patriotic music." The Musical Monitor.

Price, 25 cents net

G. SCHIRMER

3 East 43d Street

New York

A 490