Mr. Wilson, You're a Wonderful Man.

1st Verse.

Now that the war is over, and peace declared once more
Just picture every mother standing by the open door
To welcome their dear loved ones returned from No Man's Land
Our country will be waiting to shake them by the hand.

Chorus

When the boys come marching home again

To dear old Yankee Land

How happy every one will be

To see our boys so grand

We never failed to get the Hun

You can't fool Uncle Sam

We're proud of you, Mr. Wilson

You're a wonderful, wonderful Man.

2nd Verse

The Stars and Stripes are flying in Hun-land 'cross the sea

The boys behind old glory, have won their victory.

It took the Yankee soldiers to teach the Germans war,

And now they're ~~in~~ camped in Berlin, the place they started for.
