©CLE413261
NOV 16 1917

Sammy

NOS AMIS

Poem by {CHAS. A. SWEETLAND of Chicago

Music by {J. STAFFORD SUMNER LEO FREIDMAN

Published and For Sale by AMERICAN MUSIC PUBLISHERS
140 No. DEARBORN ST.
CHICAGO

Copyright 1917 by Chas. A. Sweetland. (All Rights Reserved)

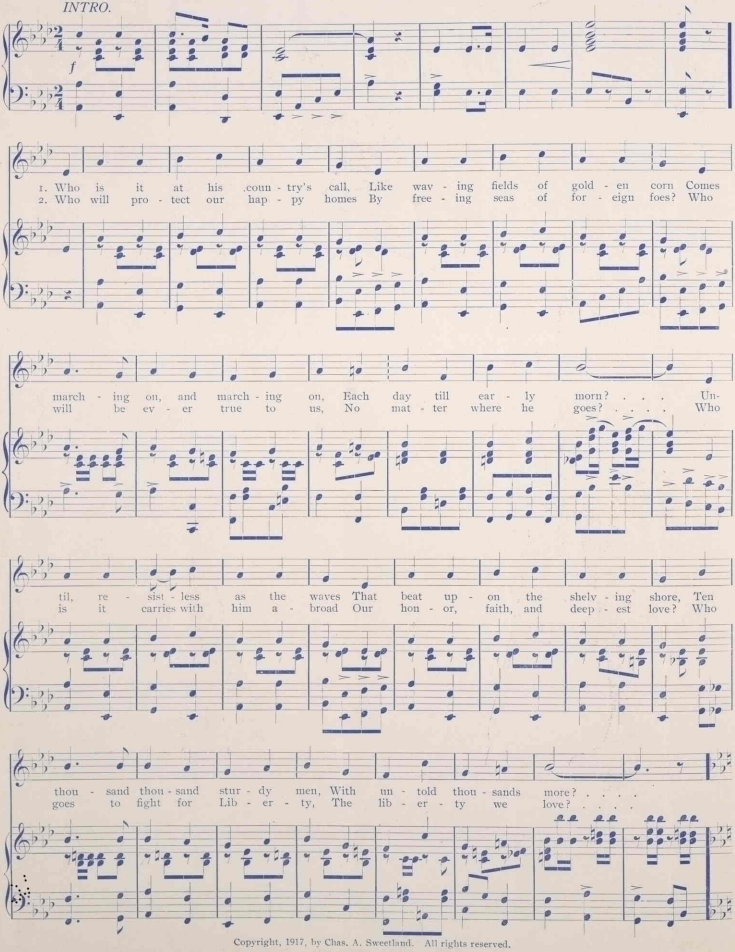
M1646
.S

SAMMY

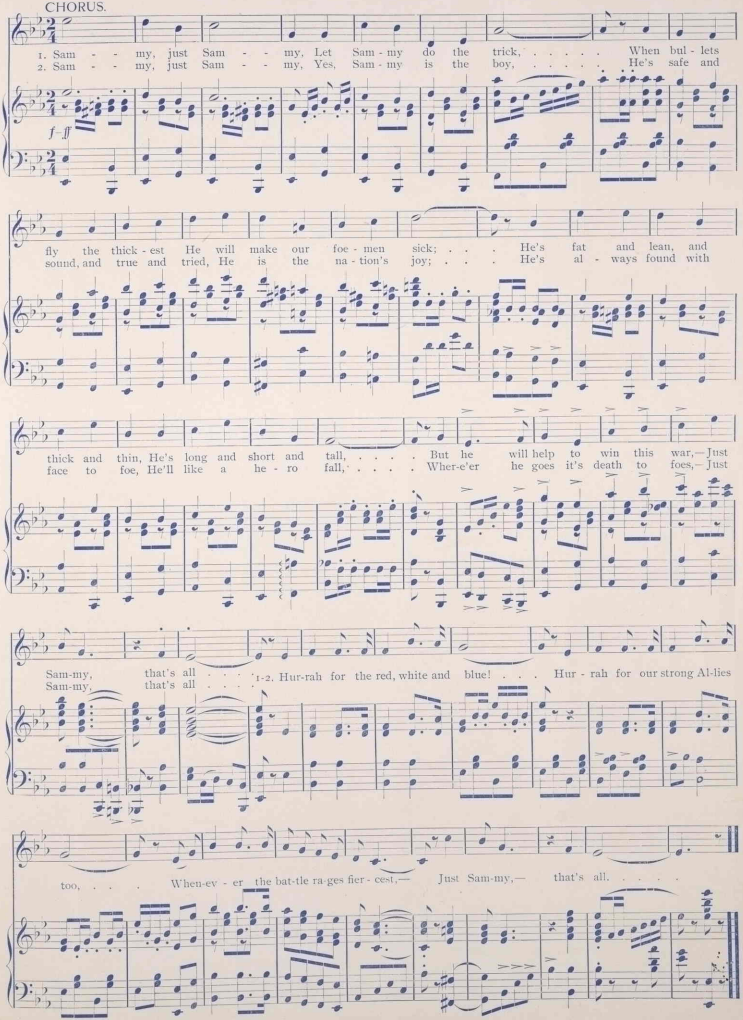
Poem by
CHAS. A. SWEETLAND

Music by J. STAFFORD SUMNER and LEO FRIEDMAN

INTRO.



Copyright, 1917, by Chas. A. Sweetland. All rights reserved.



CHORUS.
1. Sam - - my, just Sam - - my, Let Sam - my do the trick, ... When bul - lets
2. Sam - - my, just Sam - - my, Yes, Sam - my is the boy, ... He's safe and f ff fly the thick - est He will make our foe - men sick; . . . . He's fat and lean, and sound, and true and tried, He is the na - tion's joy; . . . . He's al - ways found with thick and thin, He's long and short and tall, ... But he will help to win this war,—Just face to foe, He'll like a he - ro fall, ... Wher-e'er he goes it's death to foes,—Just Sam-my, that's all . . . . 1-2. Hur-rah for the red, white and blue! . . . Hur - rah for our strong Al-lies Sam-my, that's all . . . .
too, . . . When-ev - er the bat-tle ra-ges fier - cest,— Just Sam-my,— that's all. . . . .

421508