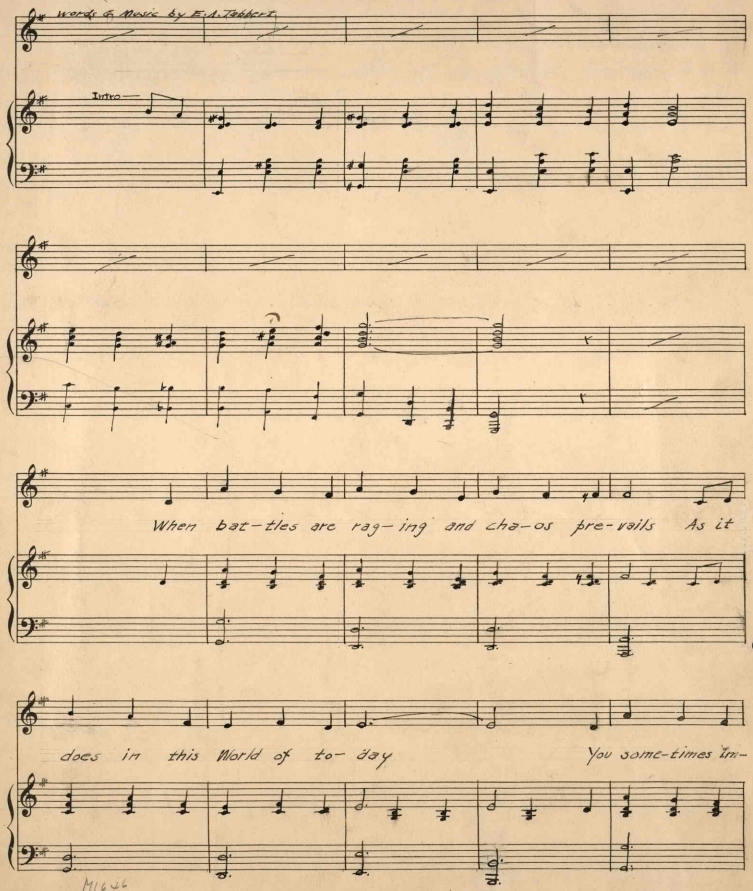
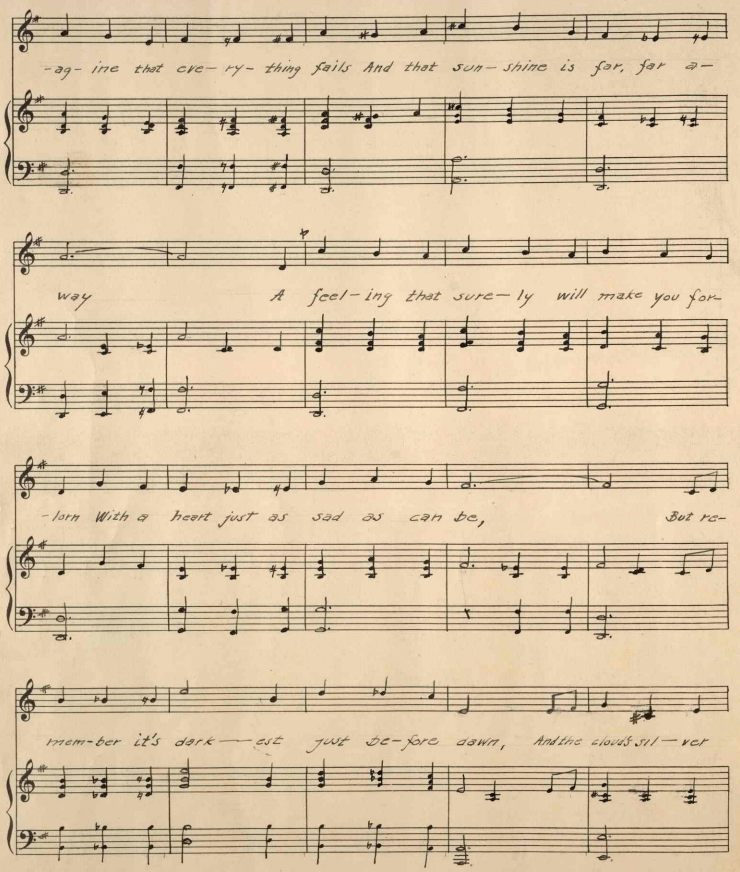
OCT 11 1918
©CLE 31931

"When Liberty Rules the World"



M1646
.T

Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.



-ag- ine that eve- ry- thing fails And that sun- shine is far, far away A feel- ing that sure- ly will make you for-lorn With a heart just as sad as can be, But remem-ber it's dark-est just be-fore dawn, And the clouds sil- ver

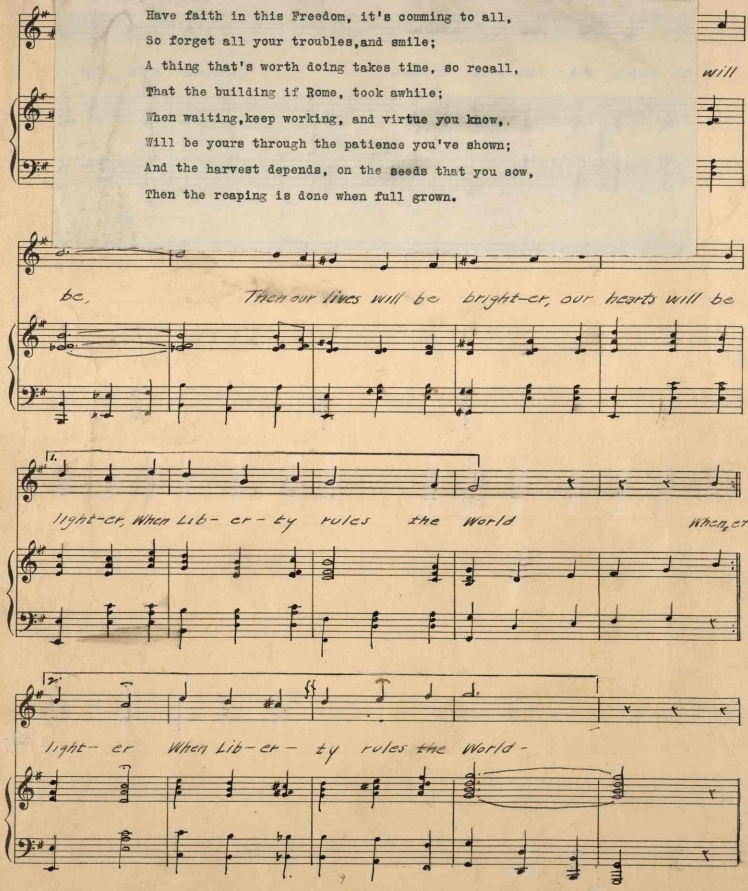
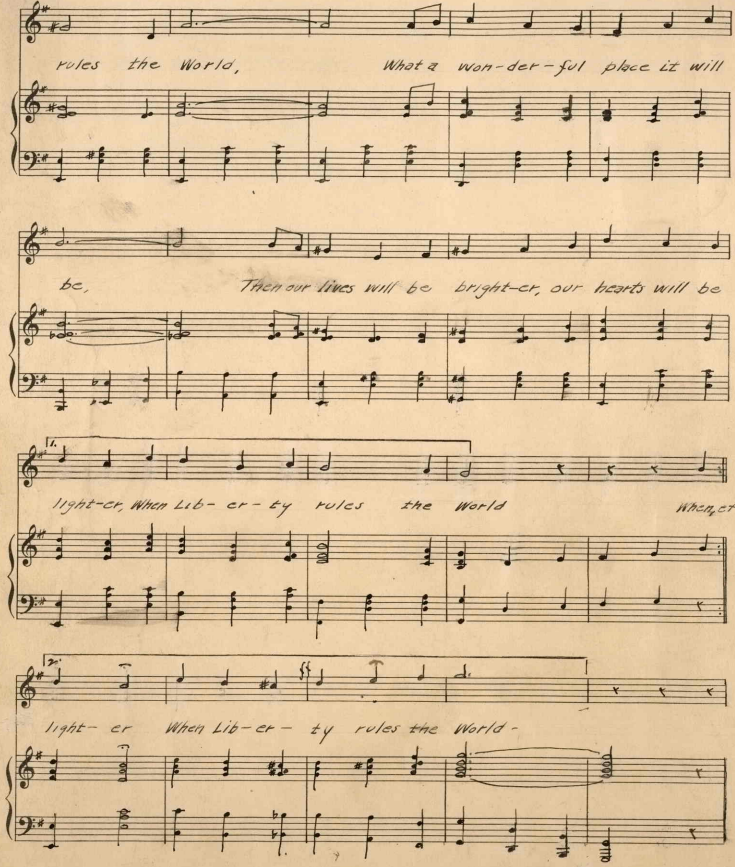
Carl Fischer, New York.
No. 10-12 lines.

(2nd. Verse)

Have faith in this Freedom, it's comming to all,
So forget all your troubles, and smile;
A thing that's worth doing takes time, so recall,
That the building if Rome, took awhile;
When waiting, keep working, and virtue you know,
Will be yours through the patience you've shown;
And the harvest depends, on the seeds that you sow,
Then the reaping is done when full grown.





rules the World, What a won-der-ful place it will be, Then our lives will be bright-er, our hearts will be light-er, When Lib-er-ty rules the World When, etc-light- er When Lib-er- ty rules the World -