©RE 12717 8
JUN 18 1918

OLD GLORY'S

CALLING HER BOYS

WORDS BY JOHN A. YOUNG

MUSIC BY
A. J. TANTIS

Address all communications to
JOHN A. YOUNG PUB·
262 West 132 St. New York

M1646
T

Old Glory's Calling Her Boys

Words by JOHN A. YOUNG

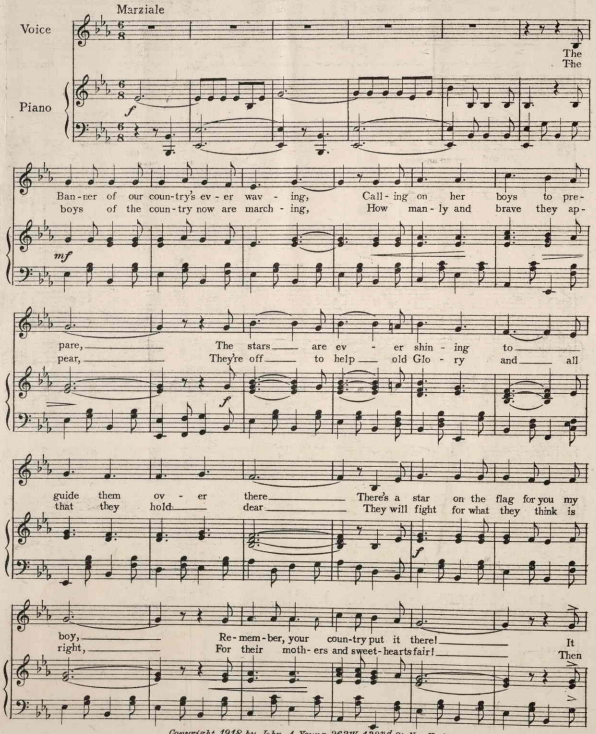
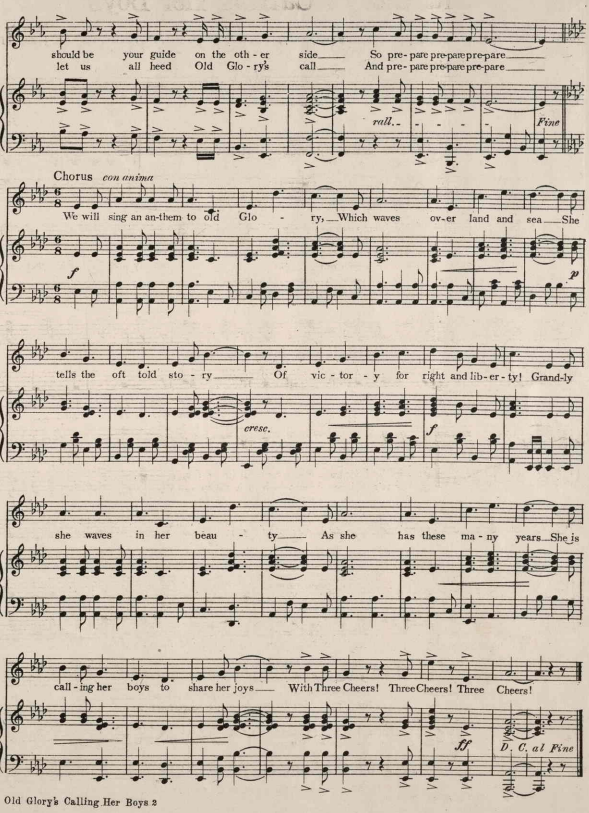
Music by
A. J. TANTIS



Copyright 1918 by John A. Young 262W. 132nd St. New York

International Copyright Secured
All Rights Reserved



should be your guide on the oth - er side So pre - pare pre-pare pre-pare let us all heed Old Glo - ry's call And pre - pare pre-pare pre-pare rall.
Fine
Chorus con anima
We will sing an an-them to old Glo - ry, Which waves ov-er land and sea She f p tells the oft told sto - ry Of vic - tor - y for right and lib-er - ty! Grand-ly cresc.
f
she waves in her beau - ty As she has these ma - ny years She is call - ing her boys to share her joys With Three Cheers! Three Cheers! Three Cheers!
ff
D. C. al Fine

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL PATRIOTIC SONGS OF THE WAR.

Old Glory is Leading the Way

CHORUS

Old Glory's now flying on freedom's frontier,
They're tenting to-night on the Somme,
Her trumpets are ringing out loud and clear,
For her boys to follow her on.
Then it's come on boys, let us all fall in,
Be heroes of the U. S. A.
We will then sing the songs of victory,
For Old Glory is leading the way.

The Mother's Star of Love

A PATRIOTIC SERVICE SONG

CHORUS

The flag of the service is flying,
'Neath the star spangled banner so true,
And heroes live ever on history's page,
So, my boy, there's a space left for you.
And by their good deeds we shall know them,
It's their manhood which makes it sublime,
And the stars will shine on the service flag,
As its folds with Old Glory entwine.

Copyright 1918 by John A. Young
International Copyright Secured

For sale by all music dealers or will be sent direct by the Publishers for 15c. in stamps.

JOHN A. YOUNG
262 West 132nd St. New York

434542